Class of 2022
Graduates

College/Major: TCU/
Undecided

Advice for younger students: I would advise younger students to get involved in whatever they enjoy and to focus on time management! Maintaining a healthy balance between fun and school work is the key to a productive yet
enjoyable high school career!

College/Major: UT-Austin/
Canfield Business Honors
Program

Advice for younger
students: HAVE FUN!!! Don't place too much emphasis on a specific idea of success.
It'll all work out! Any amount of personal gain
shouldn't be at the expense of your relationships or opportunities to make memories.

The annual Promenade was held May 6 at Aledo High School.

Caleb Elkins and Ashlyn Huddleston take time for a photo op as they enjoy the 2022 Aledo Prom

Jack Tregellas and Anna Yates celebrate their crowning as King and Queen of the prom.

Everybody found their way to the dance floor when Cupid Shuffle started playing. Still a crowd favorite after all these years.

Texas Ray, on the left and Elizabeth McCarley on the right, stopped for one last photo op as they were leaving the prom. | LEFT: A few friends decide to take a party pic with one of the local law enforcement officers keeping the peace at the prom. From let to right, Drew Woodliff, Chase Taylor, Officer James Rhodes, Hayden Alford and Koy Mullinix.

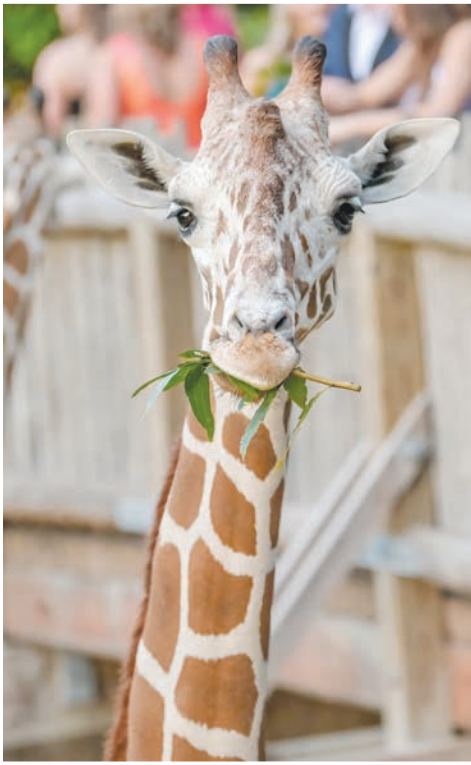

Maddox Edwards, Preston Clark, Ex Anderson, and BJ Allen dressed to impress.

Shyanne Story checks out her selfies on the Selfie iPad that was making its rounds throughout the evening.

One of the many giraffes that thoroughly enjoyed the feed the giraffes portion of the evening.
