Ryan Joseph Asbury

Ryan Asbury is the son of Jeff and Gayla Asbury. Ryan participated in football, baseball and golf throughout his high school career. He also belonged to clubs such as FCS, Math and Science, FTA, Spanish Club, and others. He has acted as the chaplain and vice president of FFA. His favorite teacher is Coach Heaton for "always being the teacher and coach that pushed me to my fullest potential," and Mr. Chambers for getting him to major in agriculture in college and showing him how agriculture can help him. Ryan's favorite memory involves the FFA trip to Indianapolis. Ryan plans to attend State Fair Community College this fall and study to receive an associate's degree, before transferring to a four-year college in order to pursue a bachelor's degree in agricultural business. He would like to thank all of the teachers he has had throughout school, with special thanks going out to Mrs. Vandelicht, Mrs. Greer, Coach Heaton, Coach Buffington and Mr. Chambers. He would finally like to thank his mom, dad and little brother for putting up with him.

Juliet Marie Asher

Juliet Asher is the daughter of Brandi Asher and Robert Smith, granddaughter of Barbara Asher and Raymond Wade and mother of Nadalynn Heath. She has participated in many clubs such as FFA, Math and Science, FCCLA, FCS and more. She lettered in her favorite sport, cheerleading. Additionally, Juliet has acted as both class vice president and president since her sophomore year, and was the president of FCCLA during her senior year. Her favorite teacher, though Juliet only had her for one year, is Mrs. Pope. Her favorite memory is Barnwarming her freshman year, which she wishes she could redo one more time because the amount of student participation was so tremendous. Juliet plans to pursue a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing, while working and continuing to raise and support her daughter. She would like to thank Tiffany Swanson for being her rock the last three years and continuing to push her when she wanted to quit. She also wishes to thank her baby girl, Nadalynn, for giving her a reason to keep going.

Jamison Lane Ball

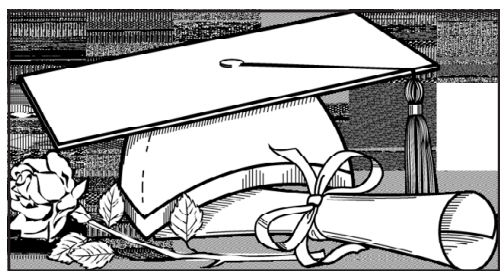

Lane Ball is the son of Jeff Ball and Kevin and Lynette Beeler. Lane participated in baseball, basketball and football throughout his high school career. Clubs he was involved in include FFA, FCS, FTA, Spanish Club, Falcon Club and others. He also participated in band and choir. His favorite teachers are Kevin Beeler and Mr. Joshua Myers. Favorite memories of Lane's include the sweepstakes in band freshman year, playing sports with his older brother his freshman year, a Washington D.C. band trip freshman year, winning a district game in baseball during his sophomore year and finally getting to the conference championship game in his freshman year after beating Salisbury. Lane's future plan is to attend Columbia College and work toward a degree as a business major. He would like to first of all thank God for keeping him alive, as well as his family and friends for always supporting him through the years. Finally, he would like to thank his coaches for helping him develop as an athlete and a person, and anyone else who has helped him along the way.

Clara Elizabeth Beaman

Clara Beaman is the daughter of Mitch and Darlene Beaman. Clara participated in basketball, softball and track and field all four years of her high school career. Additionally, she was a member of several clubs, which include Interact, Math and Science, FCS, Spanish Club and FTA. Her favorite teacher is Mike James. Her future plan is to attend the University of Missouri, major in health sciences and eventually enter the physical therapy field. She would like to thank her parents for supporting her in all of her various activities, as well as her coaches and teachers for helping her grow.

Monica Anne Parker

Monica Parker is the daughter of Kevin and Arianna Parker. She participated in junior varsity basketball, basketball cheerleading, Drama Club, Math and Science Club, SADD, choir and district choir throughout her high school career. She cannot pick a favorite memory because she has so many great ones. Monica plans to attend East Central College for two years, then attend the University of Central Missouri to pursue a degree in criminal justice. She also plans to attend UCM Police Academy to further her dream of becoming a law enforcement officer. She would like to thank her sister, Kara Parker, for guiding her and helping her see that anything is possible if she never gives up. She would also like to thank her parents for everything they have done for her, and for supporting and pushing her to do her very best. Lastly, she wants to thank all of her friends for making her life inside and outside of school the best.

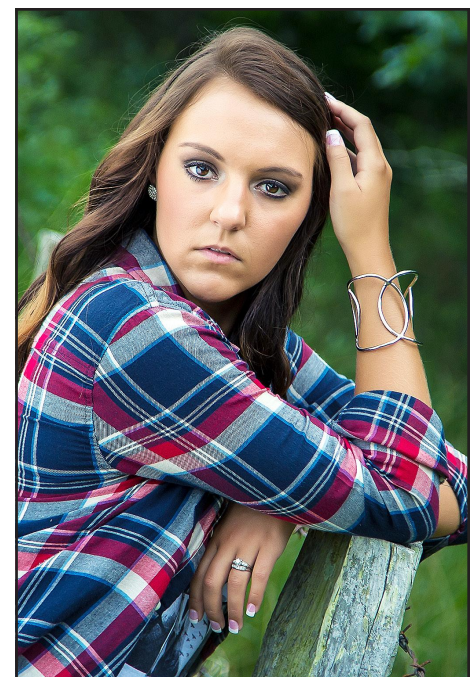

Kara Marie Poland

Kara Poland is the daughter of Luke Poland and Jody Wells. Her favorite teacher is her ninth grade Japanese teacher, Lancaster Sensei. Kara's favorite memory is meeting the band Prevail and getting the chance to talk to them and learning the one thing she wants to pursue in life, which is playing music. Her future plans are work full time and create her own music. She would like to thank her best friends, Casey Ackerman and Jonas Burns, for staying with her all these years and always believing in her. She would also like to say thank you to Wraith Burnett, Arizona Hunter and Christian Tehada, for helping her through all of her rough times and holding her up when she needed it.

Aaron Gabriel Renaud

Aaron Renaud is the son of Paul J. Register and the late Martha G. Renaud. He belonged to FFA, Interact Club, SADD, Drama Club, FCS, National Honor Society, Student Council, FTA and choir. He earned awards in both FFA and choir during his high school career. Aaron has too many favorite past teachers, but two in particular, Ms. Frevert and Mrs. Stornello, always helped him when he needed it, even after they were no longer his teachers. His two most notable memories are the fun days at State FFA Conventions with his CDE teams and how kind and helpful the school was after his mom passed away. Aaron plans to attend Truman State University to pursue a degree in teaching secondary education, with a double major in social studies and language arts. He also plans to pursue a Master in Education. He would like to thank all of his teachers, his dad for his hard work, his mom for getting him so far along and giving up the last part of her life for him, his Aunt Robin for being there for him and the congregation of Fayette First Baptist Church for being his extended family.

Gracen Breann Ripley

Gracen Ripley is the daughter of Chris and Amy Uthlaut and Brent Ripley. She was a member of the girls varsity basketball team and the FHS competition cheerleading squad, serving as the captain her junior year. Gracen's favorite teacher is Mrs. Conrow, because she was so understanding and helpful and always made her feel comfortable in class. She also loved having Mrs. Fowler in third grade, who made third grade fun and memorable. One of Gracen's favorite memories of high school is her freshman year in basketball and being nominated as the freshman Courtwarming attendant. Gracen plans to attend State Fair Community College and apply to the diagnostic medical sonography program. She would like to thank Miss Billie and Mrs. Valencia for being her life support during high school. She would like to send a special thank you from the bottom of her heart to her entire family, especially Chris, Raegan, and her Mom: "Without your support, I know I would not have made it as far as I have today." Above all, she would like to thank God for giving her the strength and faith to overcome the obstacles she faced throughout high school.

Chance Alexander Roberts

Chance Roberts is the son of Benjamin and Cynthia Roberts. He participated in track and field, basketball, football, baseball, Black Experience, FFA, FCCLA, FTA, choir and band. He earned 1 ratings at districts for all four years of high school, and he has two 2 ratings at state. His favorite teacher is Mrs. Hilgedick. Chance's favorite memory is "breaking the pole vault record three times in one day at state." He also enjoyed "getting to perform in front of thousands at state and getting second." After high school, he plans to attend Central Methodist University and major in music education. He will also be a pole vaulter for CMU's track team. Chance will work at Camp Hohn in the Lake of the Ozarks and some day at Camp Alexander in Colorado. He says he would like to send a "shout-out to the sidewalks for keeping me off the streets. I want to thank my parents for always being supportive, even when I'm a cranky teenager in the morning. I want to thank my sisters for showing what being a parent is like. I also want to thank my music teachers for helping me strive for my love of music. I want to thank my whole family, blood and non-blood, for having my back throughout my life."

Cody Glenn Ruble

Cody Ruble is the son of Greg and Beverly Lanham. He participated in FFA, football and Renaissance Club, while he focused on welding at Moberly Area Technical Center. Cody's favorite teacher was Mr. Besgrove, because "he taught me a lot during my freshman to junior years. He helped me out in math when I struggled." His favorite memory is riding four-wheelers with friends, going out and getting down and dirty in the mud. After graduation, he intends to get a job in the welding industry. Cody wants to thank his mom for always being there and Mr. Gibbs for teaching him so much during the two years of welding. "It has helped me improve my welding skills." He also thanks Savanna for all the good times, and he thanks Shelby for being his friend and always being there for him.

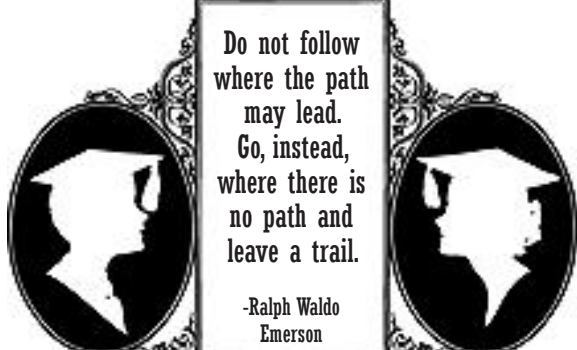

Abbey Marie Ruggles

Abbey Ruggles is the daughter of Maria and Gary Gose and Kevin Ruggles. She participated in Student Council, National Honor Society, Drama Club (secretary and president), 4-H (reporter and secretary), Spanish Club (secretary), FTA (vice president), FFA, Interact Club, Math and science Club, FCS and track and field. She was a drum major for the Fayette Pride Marching Band, a member of the Student Body Representatives for the Board of Education and a class secretary. Abbey also received a 1 rating on clarinet solos at State and a 2 rating on vocal solos at State. She has too many favorite teachers to count and no specific favorite memories, but marching band holds a lot of good memories for her. Abbey plans to attend Central Methodist University after graduation to study music performance, then pursue music therapy certification through Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College in Indiana. She would like to thank her parents, family, friends, teachers and everyone else who has supported and encouraged her to help her get to where she is today.

Logan McLane Russell

Logan Russell is the son of Scott and Sonya Russell. He played football for three years. His favorite teacher is Mr. Micah Brimer. Logan's fondest memory will be graduating high school, after which he plans to attend Moberly Area Community College. He would like to thank Dalton Ames, Ethan Chew, Jasper Lutz and Ashton Boatman for making high school fun, and says to them, "I love you guys!"

Do not follow where the path may lead. Go, instead, where there is no path and leave a trail.

Marissa Linn Schnell

Marissa Schnell is the daughter of Thomas Schnell and Sharon Doler. She received an academic award in 2013 and a Bronze Renaissance Card in 2013, 2014 and 2015. She also volunteered at The Attic from August 2015 through May 2016. Her favorite teacher is Mr. Hutchison. Marissa's favorite memory is last summer when she was trying to carefully get herself into the lake and Kara decided it would be funny to shove her into it. Her future plans are to create many graphic novels and become either an art therapist or psychiatric nurse. Marissa would like to thank her parents and teachers for helping her make it through her school years. She has learned a lot about herself and has discovered her path.

Nathan Cory Smith

Nathan Smith is the son of Duane Smith and Mary Smith. He participated in track and field and Missouri Boys State during his high school career. His favorite teacher is Mr. Bryan. Nathan's favorite memory involves playing dodgeball. After high school, he plans to attend a technical school and pursue an education in electronics.

Haleigh Nicole Strodman

Haleigh Strodman is the daughter of Kevin and Angie Strodman and Shawn and Shannon Johnson. She participated in basketball, softball and track and field, and was a member of National Honor Society, FTA, Math and Science Club, Interact Club and Falcon Club during high school. Her favorite teacher is Mike James. Haleigh plans to attend State Fair Community College, then transfer to a four-year school after graduation. She would like to thank her parents, coaches and teachers for all they have done for her throughout the years.

Deseri Maryann Taylor

Deseri Taylor is the daughter of LaTonya Turner and Courtney Taylor. She participated in FFA her sophomore year. Her favorite teacher is Miss Billie. Deseri's favorite memory is her first day of her senior year. After graduation, she plans to pursue a degree to become a veterinarian technician. Deseri would like to thank Miss Billie for "making me fight for what is actually mine."
