Chase Alexander-Miles Allen-Jackman

Chase Alexander-Miles Allen-Jackman is the son of Clarrissa Allen & Tim Jackman. Chase was a multi-sport athlete as he participated in football all four years, track all four years, basketball for three, and baseball for one year. Chase was also a part of FFA for one year. As an athlete, one of his highlights of his high school career was when he broke the 100 meter record during his sophomore year with a time of 10.79 seconds. Chase did not have a favorite teacher because he was so close and really got along with many teachers at FHS. After high school, Chase will attend Washburn University where he will pursue a degree in business management and be a member of the Washburn Ichabods football team.

Joannah Ruth Barber

Joannah Ruth Barber is the daughter of Brian Barber and Annie McDuff. Joannah was a football manager during her junior year of high school and was involved in band for her first two years. One of her favorite parts of high school was being in the A+ Tutoring Class assisting a second grade teacher. Joannah's favorite subject was English because she enjoys writing. She takes pride working at her job and plans on going into the field of business. Joannah plans to take a gap year from college.

Alexis Marie Barney

Alexis Marie Barney is the daughter of Amanda Kelly and Jeromy Barney. Her favorite memory of high school was her senior year's prom. Alexis' favorite teacher was Mr. Brimer because he was her shot put coach and always knew how to make people laugh. Her favorite subjects were fitness and art. Alexis will pursue a degree in Criminology and Psychology. She would like to thank her Grandma Ruth and Grandpa George for supporting her and guiding her through life.

Toniya Lounise Boone

Toniya Lounise Boone is the daughter of Belinda Johnson and Thomas Boone. Toniya was involved in track and field for three years. Toniya was voted "Loudest Mouth" and "Biggest Attitude." Toniya's favorite teacher was Coach Bentley. During Toniya's senior year, her mother became less strict and more fun.

Throughout high school, Toniya had only one friend, Keyara Gaines, who supported and encouraged her. Toniya's favorite memory of high school was prom 2023. Toniya plans to be a professional cosmetologist and own a hair salon. Toniya Boone would personally like to thank Ms. Tiffany Swanson for being there for her all four years of high school. Toniya would also like to thank God and her family as she moves on to bigger and better things in life. Thank you everyone!!!! Toniya Boone Senior 2023 Out!

Sadie Nichole Burchett

Sadie Nichole Burchett is the daughter of Shayna and Matt Burchett. Sadie has been part of various sports teams including volleyball, basketball, track, and cross country. She was voted "Born in the Wrong Decade" at her old school and "Biggest Heart" for senior superlatives. One of her favorite memories was getting to be drum major for her previous school and all of the leadership skills she gained from that experience. Her favorite teacher from Fayette was by far Mrs. Betts.

She always made Sadie feel so welcome, as if she belonged in the band. Even though it was tough moving second semester of her senior year, Mrs. Betts made the experience more enjoyable. Sadie plans to attend Central Methodist University in the fall and run cross country and track. She plans to major in Psychology and study to become a Child Life Specialist. She wants to say thank you to all of the teachers that made her transition to a new school easier and is excited to move on to the next step in her life.

Bailee Lou Butler

Bailee Lou Butler is the daughter of Brandon Butler and Melissa Butler. Bailee was a member of the FHS Varsity Cheer Team as cheer captain, Student Council, Spanish Club, FCCLA, Renaissance Club, Interact Club, and Yearbook. Bailee would like to thank Ms. Billie Williams for always being a helping hand and teaching her life long lessons that reach farther than the classroom. These lessons will follow her throughout the rest of her life. Bailee would also like to thank her parents for the constant support and encouragement to work hard and follow her dreams. Bailee's favorite high school memory was taking online classes with her best friends in the library and talking for hours in the black comfy chairs. She will attend The University of Missouri at Columbia to pursue degrees in Business and Social Media Marketing. She plans to rush for Greek Life and enjoy the next steps in her future.

Brayden William Conrow

Brayden Conrow is the son of Sonny and Elizabeth Conrow. Brayden was involved in FFA for four years. Brayden was voted "Born in the Wrong Decade" by his senior class. Brayden plans on being the owner/operator of his own business after high school. Brayden would like to thank his friends and family for making high school a good time.

Preslee was active in varsity basketball for three years, track and field for two years, and was involved in many school clubs such as FFA and NHS. She was voted "Best Vehicle" and "Most Likely to be a Millionaire" by her senior class. Preslee won Prom Queen her senior year, as well. She was Student Body President and enjoyed doing fun activities to make the school year enjoyable. Preslee's favorite teacher was Ms. Billie Williams because, "she helped push me to not only be a good student but also be an awesome person. Without her, I don't know if I would have been able to stay motivated." Preslee plans on attending State Fair Community College after high school and getting a business degree in order to take over the family business. Preslee would especially like to thank "all the teachers, coaches, and staff who helped me learn valuable life lessons I will use for years to come. Also, thank you to my parents and siblings for believing in me and all the friends who have helped me along the way."

Sieanna Nichole Toombs

Sieanna Nichole Toombs is the daughter of Annie Ashwill. Sieanna was involved in choir for all four years of her high school career. After graduation, she plans to attend Central Methodist University where she received a scholarship for music. Sieanna plans to study nursing to become a registered nurse. Her favorite teacher at FHS was Mr. Pekkarinen because "he helped me through math when I really needed it and he made sure I was okay and understood the concept before moving on; also he puts a ton of smiles on peoples' faces." Sieanna wants to thank all of the teachers and staff who helped her. She also wants to thank her friends and family for their support. Finally, Sieanna would like to offer a big thank you to her mother.

Zach William Vaughn

Zach William Vaughn is the son of Elizabeth and Jared Wies. Zach was a member of the Trapshooting Team and won 3rd place All-County. Zach was actively involved in FFA where he earned his Greenhand and Chapter Degree. His favorite teacher is Ms. Billie because she never gave up on him and told him that he can be whatever he wanted to be in life. Zach's favorite memory was sharing his agriculture knowledge with the elementary students on Ag Days. Zach plans to continue working at KC Custom Fencing so he can continue to make the big bucks and make way more money than Christian Dodson.

He would like to thank his family and friends for their support throughout his journey.

Sidney Alva West

Sidney Alva West is the son of David West, Amy Wilder, and Naomi King-West. Sidney has spent much of his high school career working after getting a work permit during freshman year. He spends his time out of school drawing, reading, and playing video games. After graduation, Sidney plans to attend Missouri S&T in Rolla and looks forward to majoring in Computer Science. He would like to express appreciation for the friends and family that have encouraged him and helped him along his path
