A LONGFELLOW PARTNERSHIP

The Longfellow Business Directory has been an important part of the Longfellow community going back to the 1990s. It was started to help foster better communication within the business community, and partially paid with Minneapolis Neighborhood Revitalization Program funds. When the grant money dried up, the Longfellow Business Association (LBA) wanted to continue publishing this important directory to link residents with local businesses. The LBA approached the Longfellow Nokomis Messenger about taking on the project despite the absence of an outside funding source.

While prior Directories had contained some advertising, the question posed to the Messenger was whether there would be enough support in the Longfellow business community through advertising to cover the costs of the printing and distribution of the Directory to the Longfellow community. The answer was "yes." The business community agreed this directory provided an important link to local residents as it was delivered to each home in the community and was also available directly at local businesses. It's a way for businesses to connect with customers and a way for residents to identify the myriad of businesses within walking distance. It's something residents can hold in their hands, flip through, and keep in a drawer for easy reference.

The question, "Where did I see that?" becomes a lot easier to answer. You saw it in the Longfellow Business Directory.

The first Longfellow Business and Community Directory published in cooperation with the Longfellow Nokomis Messenger was produced in 2004. Do you remember the vibrant mosaic of the Lake Street Bridge in full autumn bloom on the front cover? The text on the cover described it as "Your guide for everything you need to work and live in the Longfellow area of Minneapolis." Since then the Longfellow Business Directory has been published every two years, and is released with the December issue of the Messenger.

The 2020 Longfellow Business Directory is the 9th book that the two organizations have partnered on. LBA staff gather the information on Longfellow businesses, and Messenger staff sell the ads, produce the layout, and handle the printing and delivery. Starting with the 2018 Directory, a portion of the proceeds from the Directory has been earmarked as a contribution to the LBA annual budget to further support an integral neighborhood resource at the intersection of community and business.

ARTWORK CREDIT: Anita White is an Longfellow artist, documentary drawer, teacher, and caregiver. She is a Co-Founder of the Longfellow League of Artists (LoLa) Art Crawl and is a tireless community builder who is never without her pen and sketchbook. Anita draws all the time, wherever she is, whenever she's with, however she's feeling: pen and ink sketches into which she often incorporates words and watercolor. Drawing is how she navigates everyday life and bears witness to beauty and challenges. Anita has a gift for spontaneous drawings that capture a moment and place in time. We are proud to feature Anita's artwork in the 2020 Directory.

LIVE LONG and Prosper

Enabling community seniors to live healthy, independent & socially connected lives

- Health promotion activities – monthly socials & health/wellness talks, Tai Chi exercise, diabetes support group, art classes and technology clinics
- "Nurse Is In"/blood pressure clinics at various locations
- Nurse visits, foot care, low-vision consultations & products
- Volunteer "Friendly Visitors" to keep socially connected
- Caregiver support and respite
- And much more – contact us!

Meaningful volunteer opportunities –
help older adults live well

A local nonprofit serving 600+ older adults annually

PRINT CAN TRULY CAPTIVATE

The tangibility that print offers makes readers pay more attention to as compared to digital content. Readers actively engage with printed content - they pick it up, hold it and read it.

What does print offer that digital certainly doesn't? An uninterrupted reading experience.
