A PARTNERSHIP CONNECTING THE COMMUNITY

The Midway Chamber of Commerce Community Directory is a joint project of the Midway Chamber and the Midway Como Frogtown Frogtown Monitor. The partnership began in 1995 when a former Midway Chamber president reached out to the Monitor, a longtime Chamber member, to consider producing the annual book for the Chamber. Prior to this, the Monitor had been used solely as a distribution vehicle for the Chamber Directory, since the circulation footprints of the Monitor and the Chamber Directory do widely overlap. This new proposal for the Monitor, however, was based on the hope that the collaboration between the community newspaper and the civic and commerce association could further generate additional benefits and synergies beyond the publication of the Directory.

Today, the Chamber Directory is produced on an annual basis, with the Chamber providing the editorial copy for the book and the staff at TMC Publications, owner of the Midway Como Frogtown Frogtown Monitor, selling advertising for the Directory, producing ads, and laying out the publication. TMC Publications also handles the printing of the Directory. Each year a portion of the revenue from ad sales in the Directory are returned to the Chamber.

MIDWAY COMMUNITY COUNCILS

For more than 50 years, a hallmark of Saint Paul's diverse neighborhoods have been the District Planning Councils. These neighborhood organizations are an important part of the Midway and are increasingly linking residents and businesses. Each Council is run by an elected Board of Directors, often including business representatives.

A YEAR OF REOPENINGS

ON THE COVER:
Many businesses reopened in 2021, including Bremer Bank and Lloyd's Pharmacy, in new commercial space. Others were brand new to the community, including Minnesota Bank & Trust. Others expanded, including Tech Dump, who opened a retail store.

Going into 2021, the Midway community was similar to neighborhoods throughout the world: hoping for an end to the COVID-19 pandemic. To add to that challenge, many businesses were still recovering from damage caused during civil unrest in May 2020.

The pandemic has stayed with us longer than we hoped and also expected, though vaccines have helped many feel more confident in returning to a more normal life of returning to an office and socializing in public. Variants have set us back at times, though as we get into spring 2022 people appear more optimistic.

The civil unrest impacted businesses differently. Many did not sustain any damage, while others were in need of a new building and space- if they could find something. Others took it as a time to reevaluate their location and determine if a move would make sense amidst the building renovations.

Bremer opened at their old space, in a new building that also features The Pitch apartments.

To learn more about Love Letters For The Midway, visit the Hamline Midway Coalition at hamlinemidway.org.

Throughout 2021 and early 2022, the Midway community has seen many new openings, re-openings, and expansions. Here is a brief recap of some notable moments.

Financial Institutions

Minnesota Bank and Trust opened a new location, in the Court International building near University Avenue and Highway 280. This is their third location and first in Saint Paul and will house up to ten employees specializing in commercial banking.

Bremer Bank re-opened at its old location along Snelling Avenue, between University Avenue and Interstate 94. Previously, the site was a stand-alone building but is now part of a new development with additional commercial space and housing. The development, called The Pitch, was developed by Wellington Management. Another mixed-use building, the Pivot, is housed next door.

Re-Opening after Civil Unrest

In the spring of 2021, many businesses who lost their building to civil unrest re-opened in new space. Two restaurants, Peking Garden and Thien's Cajun, had previously been in the Midway Shopping Center and are now farther east along University Avenue (Peking Garden is at 394 University; Thien's- now King Cajun- is at 712 University).

Lloyd's Pharmacy, a long-standing pharmacy in Saint Paul, had temporarily relocated in smaller space a few doors down from its original space at the corner of Snelling Avenue and Minnehaha Avenue. It is now back in the original space, with a new building.

Continues on page 8

Bole reopened at 1341 Pascal Street.

From page 7

Bole Ethiopian Cuisine watched its original home on University Avenue burn down, with owners wondering what to do next. They were able to find a new space complete with a patio close to the State Fairgrounds, at 1341 Pascal Street.

Expansion on Energy Park

Longtime Energy Park Drive tenant Minnetronix expanded in 2021, and has added over 100 jobs and grown their footprint from 120,000 square feet to 160,000 square feet. Other recent companies moving to Energy Park Drive have included Bluum (former Tierney Brothers), All Energy Solar, and MISCO. With additional available space, more projects are being considered along the industrial footprint.

Nonprofits Continuing Good Work

TechDump, a longtime Midway resident who recycles old electronics, opened up a retail store at its building on Vandalia with a special “wire-cutting” event in September. WomenVenture, a nonprofit supporting female entrepreneurs, moved from Minneapolis to Selby Avenue around the same time.

This upcoming year also will see new business incubator space by the nonprofit Neighborhood Development Center (NDC) at the intersection of Dale and University, another business incubator at 678 Snelling Ave. N. by African Economic Development Solutions, the International Institute of Minnesota expansion, a new community food site by Keystone Community Services and community space by the St. Paul City School as they move to 215 University Avenue.

Black-Owned Businesses in the Spotlight

Black-owned businesses in both Saint Paul and Minneapolis were featured on the TV show Small Business Revolution, including Midway tenants Elsa's House of Sleep and Lip Esteem. The show provides tips and support in helping make improvements to the businesses featured, which Elsa's is using in its recent innovation at 1441 University Avenue. Lip Esteem, a newer startup, has been housed in the Griggs Midway building but will be opening up a storefront on Selby Avenue. The city's only black-owned book store, Black Garnet Books, will also open up this year at the Hamline and University intersection.

New openings continue and more new buildings are proposed. Intersections along University including Marion, Dale, Chatsworth, Snelling, Fairview, between Hampden and Pillsbury, and Raymond have all either seen new construction completed or planned. These projects will bring a mix of housing, commercial, education, and office space. The projects will all add to the neighborhood whether by providing goods and services, housing, or support for the community. They are more examples, like the openings, re-openings, and expansions over the past year, of the exciting new possibilities in the Midway. ❖

MIDWAY CHAMBER - 2021 LEADERSHIP AWARD WINNERS

The Midway Chamber of Commerce announced six recipients of its 2022 Leadership Awards. The awards were presented at the chamber's annual celebration event and recognize leading businesses, nonprofits, and individuals, who go above and beyond their support of the chamber and Midway community through volunteering of their time, staff and other resources. The recipients are:

Rookie of the Year: Neighborhood Development Center

NDC has been operating in our community for years, helping several businesses get their start. This year, they are also nearing completion of a new building at the northwest corner of Dale and University, which will house their offices along with a training center, retail incubator space, and affordable housing.

Volunteer of the Year: Matt Meyers, SPIRE Credit Union

Matt has been a Midway Chamber board member since 2014 and served as treasurer and on the Executive Committee from 2015 to 2021. Not only does Matt have a thorough understanding of the financials, he was particularly valuable in 2020 and 2021 as the Chamber navigated the unprecedented challenges brought on by the pandemic.

Nonprofit of the Year: WomenVenture

WomenVenture equips women with the skills and resources to create and grow profitable and sustainable businesses. Lack of access to capital, gaps in business knowledge, and deficient support networks are still major barriers to launch and profitability for women entrepreneurs. WomenVenture's programs open women's access to entrepreneurship by surmounting these hurdles. Their seven core training programs, microloans up to $50,000, business coaching, and community of support ensure clients are prepared to lead successful businesses. WomenVenture recently moved to Saint Paul, located at the Blair Arcade building on Selby Avenue.

Small Business of the Year: Elsa's House of Sleep

Established in 1997, Elsa's House of Sleep is a full service furniture store that offers delivery and assembly, layaway, and a full line residential furniture including rugs, mattresses, lamps and accessories. Elsa's House of Sleep was founded by Elsa Rezene in 1997 as a mattress store but she intuitively expanded into all types of home furnishings. In 2002 she moved the store to its current University Avenue location where the business continues to prosper. Her children continue to this day in her tradition of honest bargains and great customer service.

Elsa's was chosen as one of the highlighted businesses on Small Business Revolution, a reality show helping small businesses. In part through the show, Elsa's has been busy renovating its space with a completed date expected this spring.

Large Business of the Year: Mortenson

While playing a major role in the development and creation of Allianz Field, over the past two years Mortenson has also been involved in assisting with the rebuild of many Midway buildings. This continues with the RRR Fund, where they help with façade improvements along University Avenue.

The Midway Chamber is appreciative of all the work by these recipients to help build a stronger Midway.

Your First & Foremost Local Advertising Solution

of consumers plan to buy more locally in the future,

according to research by Boston Consulting Group.

The in-person shopping experience is back, and support for local businesses has never been higher. With targeted marketing opportunities in the preferred media source for trustworthy and reliable information and advertising, we're here to connect you with the area consumers seeking your products and services.

Let us help you promote your unique offerings and valuable role in the community.

Here's why local newspaper advertising pays:

It Has Staying Power.

A print newspaper ad doesn't disappear, meaning your audience will see it when they have time to focus and read through the newspaper.

It Reaches the Right Audience.

Newspapers reach an affluent and engaged local audience actively seeking out community news, information and resources.

It's Flexible.

With a variety of ad shapes and sizes, niche section advertising and campaign opportunities, choose from time-sensitive options to meet your goals and budget with fast turnaround.

It Gets Results.

Newspaper ads increase marketing ROI by three times on average, according to a study from Newsworks. The study also found that combining print with other media campaigns increases their effectiveness. Newspaper advertising made digital campaigns four times more effective and television campaigns twice as effective.

It's Trusted.

Newspapers still rank highest among all media for consumer engagement and trust, and can help build your brand's image.

It's Cost-Effective.

Newspaper advertising reaches a large number of potential consumers at a comparatively low price.

A man wearing a grey baseball cap, a white face mask, and blue gloves is holding a small green globe with soil and plants. A young child is in a backpack on his back. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with green foliage and a chain-link fence. White geometric shapes are overlaid on the image: a large triangle in the top right and a smaller one in the bottom left.
