A PARTNERSHIP CONNECTING THE COMMUNITY

The Midway Chamber of Commerce Community Directory is a joint project of the Midway Chamber and the Midway Como Frogtown Frogtown Monitor. The partnership began in 1995 when a former Midway Chamber president reached out to the Monitor, a longtime Chamber member, to consider producing the annual book for the Chamber. Prior to this, the Monitor had been used solely as a distribution vehicle for the Chamber Directory, since the circulation footprints of the Monitor and the Chamber Directory widely overlap. This new proposal for the Monitor, however, was based on the hope that the collaboration between the community newspaper and the civic and commerce association could further generate additional benefits and synergies beyond the publication of the Directory.

Today, the Chamber Directory is produced on an annual basis, with the Chamber providing the editorial copy for the book and the staff at TMC Publications, owner of the Midway Como Frogtown Frogtown Monitor, selling advertising for the Directory, producing ads, and laying out the publication. TMC Publications also handles the printing of the Directory. Each year a portion of the revenue from ad sales in the Directory are returned to the Chamber.

MIDWAY COMMUNITY COUNCILS

For more than 50 years, a hallmark of Saint Paul's diverse neighborhoods have been the District Planning Councils. These neighborhood organizations are an important part of the Midway, and are increasingly linking residents and businesses. Each Council is run by an elected Board of Directors, often including business representatives.

MILESTONES AND INVESTMENTS

If you're standing at the corner of N. Asbury Street and Spruce Tree Drive, looking northwest to the Snelling/University intersection, you will be staring up at "The Calling," otherwise known as the giant loon sculpture made by international artist Andy Scott. The sculpture stands 32.5 feet high with a wingspan of 89 feet, and was officially unveiled in October 2024. At the event marking the occasion, Mayor Carter said it would become the "most Instagrammable site in Minnesota." Whether or not that's become accurate yet, it has already become very common to see visitors taking photos and walking around it.

If you were to look toward the Snelling/University intersection, you would see the backside of the loon as it appears to be taking flight from the water. The image can be interpreted as the future of the Midway and what's to come as the United Village development takes shape. What's also noticeable is how the loon appears to be squaring off against the vacant CVS. The visual is emblematic of the Snelling/University intersection, and the Midway overall, as it faces its past, present and looks to the future.

Investments continue in the neighborhood with new and expanding businesses. In a few months in late 2024, the Midway Chamber helped cut ribbons on businesses including: the newly expanded Udo's Market, Hotworx, Dilla's Sports Bar, and welcomed new ownership for Black Garnet Books. Notably, Udo's took over the former Hardware Hank's site at 755 University and Dilla's opened in the old Midway Uniform store at 1625 University. Both storefronts stood vacant for years before being redeveloped by immigrant families.

The Udo family officially opens Udo's Market inside the former Hardware Hank store at Snelling and Englewood.

Other business owners celebrated major milestones in 2024, including many in the brewery industry. Urban Growler and Burning Brothers both marked their tenth anniversaries last year, while Lake Monster will celebrate their tenth in December 2025. And Dual Citizen is wrapping up expansion work which will include upstairs space for guests; they also moved most of their production to a nearby warehouse. Many taprooms both locally and nationally occupy space previously zoned industrial, which breathes new life into old buildings.

Over happy hour, Chamber board and staff connect.

Many breweries have seen the popularity of THC products increase their sales, and the Midway's future could see a boom in the expanded marijuana laws as well as an increase in spirit distilleries. Similar to breweries, the Midway has a lot of industrial space for manufacturing the products and also has adequate, centrally located space for socializing. Moving forward, we hope to see easier access to these hot spots with placemaking, more signage, and better transit, bicycle and pedestrian options.

Going back to United Village, The Calling wasn't the only addition in 2024. PK's Place, a playground accessible for children with all abilities, opened in June. This means the first two projects in what's called Phase One of United Village are both free and open to the public. Once the ground thaws in spring 2025, ground will be broken for three more parts of the project: office space, a hotel, and restaurants. At a community meeting in February 2025 about United Village, Dr. Bill McGuire shared more news about potential developments in future phases.

Heading north on Snelling, we can see another redeveloped building – the new home for African Economic Development Solutions. Named Little Africa Plaza, the building is home to African-immigrant businesses, a museum and African Economic Development Solutions. The organization held a ribbon cutting in August 2024 to commemorate the construction work, with an official opening in late 2024. Originally a car showroom built in 1926, the site is perfect for AEDS as it supports many nearby African businesses and has a front row view of the annual Little Africa Fest the first Sunday in August.

As we look toward the future, we do so knowing we have present-day challenges. In a neighborhood that should be one of the most walkable in Saint Paul, residents are concerned about fentanyl use. Efforts are being made to help stabilize Snelling/University, which include work by the Midway Chamber of Commerce, Hamline Midway Coalition and Union Park District Council.

Dr. Bill McGuire shares news about the upcoming developments happening outside Allianz Field in 2025, including a hotel, new restaurants, and office space.

Little Africa Plaza along Snelling is home to African-immigrant businesses, a museum, and African Economic Development Solutions.

Dionne Sims officially transfers ownership of Black Garnet Books (1319 University Ave W) to Terresa Moses.

Special elections are bringing in new leadership to the Midway. Trista Martinson stepped down as Ramsey County Commissioner in District 3 to become the first Executive Director for Ramsey/Washington Recycling and Energy, which led to the election of Garrison McMurtrey. In a rare moment, 2025 will see both a mayoral race and a special election for the Ward 4 City Council seat. This places added emphasis to our neighborhood and we hope candidates in both races will provide details in showing support for the Midway.

Newly elected Ramsey County Commissioner Garrison McMurtrey meets with people during a chamber coffee hour at Abogados Cafe.

The Midway is constantly changing, and always has been. The developments that took place in 2024 and will this year are going to have ripple effects leading to more changes in the coming years. The Midway Chamber remains committed to working with other community groups and elected officials to ensure we continue to build a stronger Midway. ❖

The Midway Chamber encourages members to meet for lunch at different restaurants.

PILLARS OF THE MIDWAY CHAMBER

Community

Any Chamber of Commerce must be in tune with their community and its needs. The Midway is a unique place we love, and our hope is to create “a strong community of businesses and organizations connected to a thriving Midway.” Here are three ways we strive to build that strong community.

Education

One of the most important parts of the Midway Chamber is the opportunity to learn, which is why we are “A business community engaged and informed on important local issues and relevant topics.”

Membership

Any Chamber of Commerce must be in tune with their community and its needs. The Midway is a unique place we love, and our hope is to create “a strong community of businesses and organizations connected to a thriving Midway.”

Partnerships

The Midway Chamber is only one piece of the puzzle in building a stronger Midway and we rely on our community partnerships. We also know each one of our members brings their own contacts and partnerships with them, making us better representatives of our community. We believe we and our members “are thoughtfully and strategically promoted and networked.”

A Simple Way to Support Community Businesses

Everyone is encouraged to support local businesses when the Midway Chamber visits a restaurant for lunch. "Lunch on the Line" was created in 2010 as a way to help support restaurants impacted by light rail construction and continues to this day to show support for our outstanding restaurant community.

Attendees learn about the future of Interstate 94 over lunch.

Economic Development Meetings

The Midway Chamber regularly schedules Economic Development meetings, where guests can learn more about topics including specific projects or panels on issues such as retail, housing, and commercial development.

Finalists for the 2025 Leadership Awards gather together.

Midway on the Fairway

The Midway on the Fairway Golf Tournament has become an important annual tradition for the Midway Chamber of Commerce and sells out each year. Proceeds from this event help the Midway Chamber keep dues affordable and enables the Chamber to continue to be a strong advocate for business in the Midway. The tournament is a great way to promote your business, network and entertain colleagues and clients. The tournament, held on June 6 this year, is now in its 88th year. If you are interested in participation contact us at info@midwaychamber.com.

At the annual Celebration of Nonprofits in December, attendees listen to speakers, learn from panelists, browse expo tables, and network with nonprofit staff.

Nonprofit Celebration

With nonprofits making up around a quarter of its membership, the Midway Chamber finds opportunities to promote the nonprofit community. One way is the annual Celebration of Nonprofits event, which features a panel, keynote speaker and nonprofit expo. The event occurs in December at Hamline University.

MIDWAY CHAMBER - 2025 LEADERSHIP AWARD WINNERS

In February, the Midway Chamber of Commerce announced recipients of its annual Leadership Awards. The awards were presented at the chamber's annual celebration event and recognize leading businesses, nonprofits, and individuals, who go above and beyond their support of the chamber and Midway community through volunteering of their time, staff and other resources. The recipients are:

Small Business of the Year: Can Can Wonderland

As with so many older buildings in the Midway, 755 Prior Ave was converted from an old manufacturing space to new uses. While there are still items getting made there, the building also provides entertainment opportunities such as Blackstack Brewing and Puzzleworks Escape Co. But the one that started it all was Can Can Wonderland. Led by Rob Clapp's vision, he converted the space into a mini golf course that doubles as art exhibits, found a home for many old arcade games, and created a fun place to check out live music and more onstage. Clapp didn't stop there, either, as he has also found creative uses for other older buildings in Saint Paul. Runners up: The Hive Socially Responsible Realtors, TST Creative Catering.

Large Business of the Year: Ideal Printers

Ideal Printers has been in operation since 1979, and for years has been run by the original founders' two daughters, Joan Siewert-Cardona and Lana Siewert-Olson, and their husbands.

True to a locally-owned businesses' roots, the company was founded when Howard Siewert was annoyed at his employer's habit of favoring larger clients over the needs of the smaller businesses.

So Howard set out to give clients a more "ideal" experience. Ideal has also been a major supporter of the Midway Chamber, especially in helping with our Annual Celebration. A member of the Ideal Printers team, Pam Bintzler, has been very active with the Midway Chamber and serves on many Chamber committees. Runners up: Associated Bank, Blaze Credit Union

Rookie of the Year: Mighty Consulting

When the Midway Chamber was looking for help in creating a strategic plan in 2023, they hired Mighty Consulting. Led by Melissa Martinez-Sones, the process was organized and fun for participants, with Board members and staff feeling like the work made a difference. For Melissa, it was fun to work on a project so close to home as she's been a Midway resident ever since she went to school at Hamline University. And the Midway Chamber isn't the only local client for Mighty Consulting, as they have worked with several nonprofits in and near the Midway. Runners Up: Cady Business Technologies, Jersey Mike's

Nonprofit of the Year: My Very Own Bed

Michael Allen was working in social services when he realized how many children had poor sleeping conditions, and in 2014 he founded My Very Own Bed. They have now grown and helped provide over 8,500 beds and Dream Kits to children between 2-17 years old. In addition to mattresses, My Very Own Bed helps children acquire sheets, blankets, pillows, a mattress pad, a stuffed animal, and a book. Part of the importance to improved sleeping conditions is the direct link to health sleep and improvement in all aspects of a child's life. Runners Up: HandsOn Twin Cities, Our Lady of Peace

Volunteer of the Year: Tesha M. Christensen

Tesha does a lot for the Midway Chamber, including taking photographs at many events and promoting our work and programming through the newspaper. She is also our Ambassador Committee Chair and sits on the Board of Directors and our Communications Committee. Her dedication to the Midway Chamber is also a sign of her dedication to the Midway community in general and has helped her become an expert on what's happening around the neighborhood. Runners Up: Justin Borrell, Jeff Hart

The Midway Chamber is appreciative of all the work by these recipients to help build a stronger Midway.

The nomination in leadership for large business of the year was a humbling and eye-catching surprise. Because of how active I am on LinkedIn, I have found more people reaching out to me since that announcement. Also, my existing clients have referred more business to me when they realized that I am a part of the chamber. Presentations such as that from Keyhubs and the one on AI have helped me call upon different colleagues at my own company for creative ways to make our goals and bolster colleague engagement. I cannot stress enough that this chamber is the most organized and mutually beneficial networking group I've attended in my 16 years of banking.
