Dear Santa,
I am really excited for this year’s christmas. I am really thrilled to bake you cook-ies,leave you milk, and put out some reindeer food.Christmas is about having fun with my family and God’s birthday. But what I want for christmas I’m not asking for much but i want a little bit of fidgets. I really don’t care what I get, you can get me anything and I am thankful for what I got. But I do have a ques-tion: what is my elf Elsa going to do this year? I know I said I didn’t want much but I really want an apple watch. You don’t have to get me one if that’s too much. Christmas is my favorite time of the year! I want to get my baby sister Meryn some-thing for christmas but I don’t know what to get her because she already has all the baby toys there are.So can you please help me figure out what I can get her for christmas cause I really need to know. Oh and can you send Elsa with a magic glove so we can pick her up or in a bubble so she can go where I go please please please.Oh and also I know Kynnlee is mean to me but I want to be nice to her and get her favorite people from her favorite show peppa pig play set. I hope you like this letter. Have the best Christmas ever!
