Core Creek Park comes alive with eco-inspiration at Earth Day Celebration

by June Portnoy

Middletown Township's annual Earth Day Festival returned to Core Creek Park on Sunday, April 27, after a one-day delay due to rain. The weather might have shifted plans slightly, but the community showed up in full force to celebrate environmental awareness, sustainability, and community engagement.

With an estimated 1,000 attendees over the course of three hours, the festival offered something for everyone, including live music, eco-friendly vendors, children's activities, and even horse-drawn carriage rides through the park, a first for this event.

"We have a dedicated group of vendors each year, so we still ended up with about 40 vendors in attendance," said Patrick Graham, Assistant Director at Middletown Township Parks & Recreation. "We had a great turnout despite a very windy day."

The festival, which has been a long-standing tradition in the community for over 20 years, was originally initiated by the Middletown Environmental Advisory Council (EAC), a group of community members passionate about local environmental issues. "This event started as an effort for local residents to come out and learn about environmental issues," Graham explained. "Each year we invite a variety of vendors ranging from the nature centers of Bucks County, such as Silver Lake, Churchville, and Peace Valley, to businesses like PECO and Waste Management who share information about their energy efficiency programs with the public.

Vendors provided hands-on activities, information booths, and giveaways, such as tree saplings from Middletown's EAC—roughly 350 young trees given to attendees, which could one day grow up to 50 feet tall—and garden plant giveaways from the Falls Township EAC. "We want people to come to learn about their environment and how to be a good steward of the environment and the community," Graham emphasized. "Whether it's picking up trash in your neighborhood or at your local park, we want folks to leave with a better understanding of how they can make a difference."

The festival also included family-friendly attractions such as an inflatable slide, balloon sculptures, caricature artists, and a stage with live performances. A local DJ emceed the day and coordinated sound for two live acts, including a

Langhorne Council for the Arts

On Saturday, May 31 from noon – 4 PM, Langhorne Council for the Arts will host a most unique and delightful event: The Arts in the Garden Tour. Artists and musicians will add to the enjoyment of natural beauty in five private and public gardens in Langhorne Borough and Langhorne Manor. Several stops on this self-guided tour also include open artist studios!

Artwork on display (and some for purchase) will include photography, acrylics, pastels, watercolors, tiles, jewelry, and quilts. Musicians will include harpists, blues, folk, indie, jazz, and pop. A full schedule will be posted on www.LanghorneArts.org. Here are the locations of the gardens:

609 Hill Avenue in Langhorne Manor was built in 1918. This shady property has a lush landscape and award-winning gardens with strategically placed river rocks, specimen plantings, a magical Irish garden, and Fern and Hosta gardens.

Everyone who passes by 312 N. Bellevue Ave. oohs and aahs at the gorgeous riot of flowers in the front yard, but wait until you see what's in the backyard!

A pond, a playhouse, and more flowers and birdhouses make this a haven for birds, frogs, and grandkids.

222 N. Green St. is the location of Langhorne Heritage Farm. On this property, the farm's outbuildings have been converted into artist studios, the bullpen into a meditation garden, and the field into 100 community garden plots. Lots to see here!

You'd never know when driving by the beautiful Victorian home at 128 E. Maple Ave. that it hides an enchanting secret garden with ponds, specimen plants, and two artist studios! Tiles, jewelry, and award-winning pastel paintings are created in this inspiring place.

The gardens of the historic Richardson House, 102 W. Maple Ave., are yet another ideal setting for lovers of art, music, and lovely landscaping under the care of Four Lanes End Garden Club. And right behind the garden will be another open artist studio!

Tickets (cash or check) are $25 for adults, $10 for students, free for children under 6 years old, and can be purchased at all the garden locations. For more info, including any changes due to weather, visit www.LanghorneArts.org.

Rooted in faith, fueled by family: A journey from corporate to lawncare

Ryan and Lindsay Dittes own and operate RD's Total Lawn, a local lawn care and turf management company. Going back to 2018 when the business was founded, both Ryan and Lindsay were working full-time jobs with one child at home. Ryan started mowing some lawns out of his SUV with a fold up mower just as a means of some extra money.

With steady growth over time the business was able to allow Lindsay to resign from her teaching job and stay at home to raise the kids. Last year in 2024, Ryan was able to take the leap of faith and resign from his full-time job at Coca-Cola to be able to focus full time on growing the lawn-care business. Ryan says that he is very grateful for his time in the corporate world where he learned so much. Ryan and Lindsay are excited to see what plans the Lord has in store for them as they grow their family and business.

As stated in the company name, "Total Lawn," they primarily focus on the regular maintenance of the lawn itself with expertise in turf management. If you're someone who likes to support local and buy local here is a great company to consider.

Services Offered:

Lawn Fertilizer and Weed Control: a 7-step program annually which includes fertilizer, weed control, insect, and lime application for a green and weed free lawn.

Lawn Mowing: Weekly lawn service which includes trimming, edging, and blowing off property.

Aerations and Overseeding: relieves compaction in the soil and seeding at the same time for a lush healthy lawn.

The family appreciates your business and support! They encourage you to check out their reputation online. Call/Text Ryan at 215-688-1622 or visit them on the web at www.RDTotalLawn.com.

Kenderdine's Heating Oil & HVAC

Spring allergies got you down? Your AC filter might be to blame

Spring brings sunshine, fresh air, and for many of us, sniffles and sneezes. While you may be quick to blame blooming trees and high pollen counts, your indoor air could be part of the problem. If your AC filter hasn't been changed or cleaned recently, it might be circulating allergens instead of keeping them out.

Your HVAC system works hard to maintain a comfortable temperature, but it also plays a big role in your home's air quality. A dirty or clogged filter can't trap dust, pollen, and pet dander effectively, which means those particles stay in the air you breathe.

Don't Let a Dirty Filter Ruin Spring

How often should you check your AC filter? It depends on your filter type:

- Disposable filters: Swap them out every 1-3 months. Households with pets or allergy sufferers should lean toward the monthly mark.
- Washable filters: These should be cleaned every three months. After rinsing, make sure they're fully dry before putting them back in place. Pro tip: Always give the filter rack a quick vacuum or wipe-down when you change or clean the filter; it helps keep dust from blowing back into your system.

You may also consider upgrading your system with HEPA filters or UV lights. These additions to your system can further improve your home's air quality.

Let Us Help You Breathe Easier
At Kenderdine's Heating Oil

& HVAC, we know how easy it is to forget about routine maintenance. That's why we offer professional AC and heat pump tune-ups to help keep your system clean, efficient, and allergy-season ready.

Call us at 215-968-2041 or visit www.kenderdines.com to schedule your spring service or to quote upgrades like HEPA filters and UV lights, and breathe a little easier this season.

What one local seller almost gave up before listing her home

In a seller's market, it's not uncommon for eager buyers to make a move before the "For Sale" sign even hits the yard. That's exactly what happened to one local homeowner recently—only this time, the story took a very different turn.

Before she had the chance to list her home, a relative of a neighbor approached her with an offer. The buyer was polite and direct: they wanted to purchase the house off-market, for $25,000 less than what her realtor had suggested she list it for. To someone unfamiliar with the selling process, it seemed simple—skip the showings, avoid commissions, and be done with it.

But the seller wasn't comfortable handling the sale on her own. She wasn't sure how to verify the buyer's qualifications, navigate contracts, or protect herself legally. So, she called her agent for advice.

Her agent encouraged her to take a breath and consider the bigger picture. The only way to truly know the home's value was to expose it to the open market—and let buyers compete. It felt risky at first, but she trusted the guidance and listed the property.

The result? Multiple offers. Fierce competition. And a final sales price that was $86,000 higher than the original off-market offer.

While the buyer's early offer wasn't malicious—in fact, it was a smart move on their part to try—it underscores an important truth: when sellers take shortcuts to avoid commissions or sidestep the process, they often leave far more money on the table than they realize.

In this case, listing the home publicly didn't just bring in a better price. It also brought peace of mind. The agent qualified the buyer, managed every detail of the transaction, and ensured the seller got both the best price and the best terms.

The story is true! The agent you choose to work with does matter—so choose wisely! If you're considering selling your home, let's talk! You can reach me at 215-801-2019 or Kathleen@kathleenlayton.com. I'd love to meet you!

Throughout the event, participants enjoyed a festive Cinco de Mayo-themed nacho bar while their vehicles were being serviced. Once maintenance was complete, each car received a complimentary hand wash, courtesy of dedicated volunteers.

Drive And Thrive exists to serve those whose transportation needs are critical to their wellbeing, and this clinic was no exception. Attendees included women and their children who recently fled domestic violence, grandparents raising grandchildren on fixed incomes, and individuals managing serious medical challenges.

One participant, Maryanne of North Wales, shared, "I am a single parent of two children with multiple disabilities. Drive and Thrive is the only resource

I have found to help with car repairs. I take my children to so many doctor appointments and therapies at CHOP and Nemours that having a car is essential to help them get the care they need to flourish. Thank you so much Drive and Thrive for making sure my car is safe so I can keep my focus on helping my children and supporting them. I am so grateful you saw a need and took action caring for the community."

While applications for the Empower Wheels Car Clinic are currently closed for this quarter, individuals in need of urgent assistance may still apply for our Critical Repair Program or Fuel/Lift Assistance Program by visiting www.comedriveandthrive.org.

Together, we're driving change—one vehicle, one family, one story at a time.

Joe McIlvaine Tree & Lawn

May is a great month for tree care in the northeast, as the weather starts to warm up and the trees begin to bud. As an arborist at Joe McIlvaine Tree and Lawn, I am here to offer some tips and advice on how to care for your trees this month.

Consult with a Certified Arborist to assess the best methods to prevent and treat diseases affecting your trees.

One of the biggest issues that homeowners face during this time of year is the emergence of pests and diseases. There are several pests and diseases that commonly affect trees in the northeast, such as emerald ash borer, Dutch elm disease, oak wilt, and Spotted Lantern Fly. These pests and diseases can cause significant damage to your trees, and it is important to take action to control them as soon as possible.

One of the best ways to prevent pests and diseases is to keep your trees healthy. This means providing them with the right amount of water and nutrients, as well as pruning them regularly to remove any dead or diseased branches.

Additionally, you should be on the lookout for any signs of infestation, such as holes in the trunk or leaves that are discolored or wilting.

If you do notice any signs of pest or disease infestation, it is important to act quickly. There are a number of different treatments that can be used to control these issues, such as insecticides, fungicides, and tree injections.

As an experienced arborist, I can help you determine the best course of action for your trees and provide you with the necessary treatments to keep them healthy.

At the first sign of infestation or disease, it is important to act quickly and seek professional help.

At Joe McIlvaine Tree and Lawn, we are here to help you with all of your tree care needs. Give us a call today at 215-322-8394 to schedule a consulta-

Andrew's Lawn Ranger

Following last year's drought, we still have a rain deficit. We had a cold and dry winter. Plants already drought-stressed were damaged further by extreme cold, coupled with temperature fluctuations in March and April. While lawns may look lush right now, they are still lacking adequate soil moisture.

Flea, Tick and Mosquito Suppression: It's flea and tick season, and mosquitos will be around in large numbers this year. Let us help you enjoy your time outdoors with monthly visits to treat your property for these pests. Applications are made by fogging the perimeter of the property and spraying nesting areas, using organic control with peppermint and rosemary oils. Plant material around the house (patio, deck, pool, swing set wood lines if applicable) will also be treated. Turf Care: We are finishing our second round of crabgrass preventer and weed control. It's not too late to get you on our program! Mowing height is the most frequent question we receive. The shorter the turf, the more stress on the plant. Height should be in the 3.75" to 4.25" range. Change the mowing direction so you don't create a 'pattern' in your lawn. Sharp mower blades will prevent your turf from getting a fuzzy brown look.

Plant Health Care: Are your plants protected from insects? Our technicians are applying foliar insect, mite, and fungicide sprays now. This is crucial due to current plant stress as well as rising temperatures coming in the next few weeks. Continued watering of trees and shrubs would be advised until soil moisture levels improve.

Deer Control: Give deer a reason to go elsewhere. Our monthly treatments make your plants taste and smell bad to hungry deer. Protect your trees and shrubs year-round.

Contact our office to set up a consultation. 215-968-8535 or andrewslawnranger@aol.com. Visit the Education Center on our website at Andrewslawnranger.com

C&C Family Roofing and Siding

Minor accents that let your home stand out

How often do we look at our homes and think our home is either cookie cutter or drab? If that is what you're thinking, then here are some ways to increase your home's curb appeal:

Metal Roofing: If you have a bay window, a pent roof, or a front porch you can replace the shingles with a standing seam metal panel roof - the metal panels will provide an accent to the front of your house.

Board and Batten or Cedar Shake Siding: These vinyl siding profiles will provide a break from the existing vinyl siding and provide texture and depth.

Decorative Accents: There are many different closed cell foam accent pieces that can provide a decorative touch to your home such as corbels,

Transform your home from shabby to chic window headers, porch post columns or gable louvers. There are many more options.

Color Change: Choosing a contrasting color on the front of your house also attracts the eye.

Stone Façade: Removing existing vinyl siding and installing a stone façade can create a sense of warmth and texture that adds pop to the front of your home.

Shutters: If you add shutters, you create a different aesthetic and provide color.

Garage doors: Removing the old wood panel garage doors and installing new garage doors with windows or barn style doors can really change the profile of your home.

Railings: Front porches often have railings made with 2x4s. Try changing to posts with acrylic panels to provide an unobstructed site line.

Window boxes: They provide color and warmth to the front of your home.

Landscaping: A change of plants, bushes, or even the size or shape of your landscaping bed can create a different appearance.

Any combination of the above options can really enhance the appearance of your home.

With over 30 years in the business, you can trust C&C Family Roofing & Siding for all your siding and roofing needs. Call us today at 215-999-6248.

Jann's Auto Service

Providing honest and high quality service for over 40 years

Jann's Auto Service in Feasterville is an honest, local repair shop you can trust.

The quality of workmanship at Jann's Auto Service speaks for itself, which is why its parking lot is always filled with cars.

Jann's does a full line of repairs including computer diagnostics, air conditioning and state inspections for cars, light trucks and trailers.

John is a hands-on owner. "I believe in having only one location because I want to be here for my customers every day, 45-plus hours a week," says John. "If there's a problem, I'm here for my customers."

Although Jann's was established in 1977 by William Jann, John worked for Bill for 11 years before purchasing the business from him in 2002. The transition was seamless since Jann's had already established a positive reputation in the community and John had developed an on-going relationship with his customers.

Over the years, the service station went from a one-story building with two bays to a shop with seven bays and 3,600 square-feet. It's because of his customers' loyalty that he's been able to continue to grow and expand over the years.

John lives in Feasterville with his wife, Janice, and they have raised their two children here as well. Ironically, John met his wife while he was still working for Bill. His wife was one of his customers!

Join your neighbors who already trust John with their cars by bringing yours to Jann's Auto Service. It's your neighborhood service station looking out for your best interest.

Hours are Mondays through Fridays from 7:30 am until 5 pm, and Saturdays by appointment. Emergencies are always given priority treatment.

Newtown Arts Company

A fresh twist on a timeless classic: Newtown Arts Company brings Kate Hamill's "Pride and Prejudice" to the stage

Get ready for a bold, witty, and delightfully offbeat take on a literary favorite. From June 19 to June 22, Newtown Arts Company presents Kate Hamill's acclaimed adaptation of "Pride and Prejudice" at the historic Newtown Theatre, located at 120 North State Street, Newtown. Tickets are on sale now at newtownac.booktix.com.

Hamill, known for her inventive and irreverent spins on classic literature, reimagines Jane Austen's beloved novel with a contemporary sensibility and comedic punch. In this version, the social pressures of Regency-era England collide with a modern feminist lens, delivering a show that's fast-paced, full of surprises, and fiercely funny.

At the heart of the story

is Elizabeth Bennet—sharp-tongued, fiercely independent, and totally uninterested in marrying for status. That is, until she crosses paths with the enigmatic (and awkward) Mr. Darcy. What follows is a clever and chaotic journey through pride, prejudice, and unexpected connection. The play turns tradition on its head while staying true to Austen's signature wit and insight.

Directed by Tammy Tuckey, this vibrant production promises lively performances, inventive staging, and a fresh voice that will captivate longtime Austen fans and newcomers alike.

Presented through special arrangement with Broadway Licensing, LLC, servicing the Dramatists Play Service collection (www.dramatists.com), this production captures the essence of classic romance while infusing it with new energy, humor, and heart. Whether you're revisiting a favorite story or discovering it for the first time, "Pride and Prejudice" at Newtown Arts Company is a must-see theatrical event.

Newtown Arts Company is proud to create a space where creativity thrives and all are welcome—on stage, backstage, and in the audience. For details on tickets, memberships, volunteering, and ways to support the arts, visit newtownartscompany.com or connect with us on social media.

"It's really amazing that people are recognizing me for things I did in high school and college," she said. "I'm very thankful to the committee for that recognition and the opportunity to relive the good old days and also to remember all the growth I had from sports."

Miller set the Neshaminy record for career goals (102) and assists (78) and was the Gatorade Pennsylvania Player of the Year in 2014. She was a member of Penn State's first-ever NCAA championship team (2015).

"It was an experience of a lifetime," Miller said. "Everyone asks me if I liked high school or college better, but they were so different; it's hard to choose. But I loved both and I'm very happy to be here."

Donna Nicholson excelled in field hockey, basketball and softball at Pennsbury. She returned to her alma mater to coach girls basketball and track. She was a PIAA field hockey official for 38 years and was named the Field Hockey Official of the Year in 1995.

Kelly Kopack Kauffman, inducted in 2022 for her field hockey career at Neshaminy, is with her father John Kopack, longtime wrestling coach at Pennsbury, inducted this year.

"Being a graduate of Pennsbury and being able to come back to Pennsbury as a teacher meant the world to me," she said. "It was such an amazing opportunity to give back and to impart some of the values that I learned at Pennsbury to student-athletes at Pennsbury."

Paluszek set the Philadelphia Catholic League record in 1998 with a 218.6 average. After graduating from Wichita State, he joined the Professional Bowlers Association in 2005, winning five PBA titles.

"This is an ultimate gratification for many years of dedication," said Paluszek, who owns Bowlero and Joe's Pro Shop in Feasterville. "It's a testament to the people who supported me and gave me the confidence to go on for so long."

Poff was another three-sport athlete, competing in wrestling, soccer and cross country at Council Rock. He was the head coach at Lock Haven from 1990-2002 and is a member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

"It's a tremendous honor to be recognized by your local community," he said. "I have nothing but good memories about my experience in Bucks County and Council Rock. It's a special night for me."

Wunsch was the goaltender for Neshaminy's field hockey team, starting for three seasons and setting a program record for shutouts (35). She was all-state first team in field hockey and softball.

She played both sports at Princeton.

"They were all wonderful years, both at Neshaminy and Princeton," she said. "I was so fortunate to have fantastic people around me; so many great coaches, so many great teammates."

ECI Comfort Energy-saving thermostat tips for spring

develop energy-saving habits before the full summer heat arrives. These small adjustments reduce wear on your system and lower utility bills.

Call ECI Comfort today to schedule your $79 AC Tune-Up! Our technicians will ensure your system is running at peak efficiency before the summer heat sets in. Call us at 267-227-0995 or visit our website www.ecicomfort.com/ac-2025.

As the days warm up, your thermostat can help you stay comfortable while keeping energy bills in check. Here are simple adjustments that can make a big difference:

Raise the temperature when you're away

When no one is home, set your thermostat 7–10 degrees higher. According to the U.S. Department of Energy, this can lower cooling costs by up to 10%.

Use a programmable or smart thermostat

Modern thermostats automatically adjust temperatures based on your schedule. This saves energy without the hassle of constant manual changes.

Use ceiling fans with your AC

Fans help circulate cool air, allowing you to set your thermostat about 4 degrees higher and still feel comfortable. Remember: fans cool people, not rooms, so turn them off when you leave.

Avoid placing heat-producing appliances near the thermostat

Lamps, TVs, and other electronics can cause the thermostat to register false heat readings, making your system run longer than necessary.

Bucks County Opportunity Council Celebrates Economic Self-Sufficiency Graduation 2025

The Bucks County Opportunity Council (BCOC) hosted the 2025 Economic Self-Sufficiency (ES) Graduation on April 30 at The Warrington Country Club. This year's celebration honored 18 graduates, bringing the program's total to 1131 people in 420 households.

Bucks County Commissioner Bob Harvie kicked off the evening by welcoming all the guests and commending the BCOC ES Program for many years of contributing to the improvement of the lives of Bucks County residents. BCOC's CEO Erin Lukoss then presented the annual Champion of Self-Sufficiency award to Congressman Brian Fitzpatrick. The award honors a business, partner, or community member for their role in the success of the ES program. Kyle Melander, Congressman Brian Fitzpatrick's representative, accepted the Self-Sufficiency Champion award on behalf of the congressman and shared a video of Fitzpatrick congratulating the graduates on their accomplishments. He spoke about the importance of the ES program and its impact within Bucks County, which was why they were driven to help BCOC receive congressionally directed funding.

The ES Program is a highly successful program that provides one-on-one coaching and resources to those living in poverty who commit to working toward economic self-sufficiency. The graduates have worked, mostly for several years, on an intense, structured plan to become financially self-sufficient.

Nearly every graduate reflected on the program as a life-changing experience. Each of their coaches provided help and support, and gratitude was a consistent theme throughout the event. The coaches and the program break the stigma often associated with asking for help. One graduate shared that through a difficult life, full of more downs than ups, her mantra was always "everything is temporary." She got through, one moment at a time, convinced that things could be better. Being a part of the ES program, she was able to break the cycle of generational poverty that she had experienced. Her words, "I know my kids will have a better life" had an incredibly emotional impact on the over 200 guests.

The 2025 class began the program with an average starting income of $19,687. In the 31 months' time it took for the group to graduate, they increased their income to an average of $65,948, that is an increase of $46,261. The key to success has been acquiring the additional education and training necessary to earn a living wage. All 18 graduates have improved their position within their company or gained new employment since beginning the program.

In her closing remarks, Lukoss said, "At BCOC, we know that economic mobility starts with stability. You can't dream about the future when you're worried about getting through the week. That's why our programs are designed to meet people where they are, with the resources they need to move

Pennsbury Manor adopts new rescue horse: Norway

Norway, a former racing horse, joins Pennsbury from a Colorado "kill pen"

Pennsbury Manor, William Penn's reconstructed estate on the Delaware River in Bucks County, welcomes Norway, a recently rescued racing horse, to its educational barnyard.

Norway Hanover, is a retired Trotter for the Standardbred harness racing industry, who raced across the US and Canada. These horses often end up in cramped and unhealthy "kill pens" until they can be auctioned for slaughter.

Pennsbury Manor

Norway was rescued by the Standardbred Retirement Foundation from a kill pen in Colorado.

Norway has now found a forever home at Pennsbury Manor. After a period of rehabilitation to improve his physical condition, he joined Pennsbury in late March. At 16 years old, Norway is a handsome horse who brings a calm and gentle demeanor, making him an ideal addition to the historic site's educational programs centered around historical animal husbandry, which represent farm life during William Penn's time on the property. Many local children will have the chance to interact with Norway during his life at Pennsbury.

"Norway joins Pennsbury's existing herd, which includes Arnie the horse, the oxen team, sheep, and geese," said Carole Cunliffe, Animal Curator at Pennsbury Manor. "Under the care of our dedicated team, he is already getting along famously with all his barnyard companions, including the forward. What does economic mobility really mean here? It means having the choice to live where you want to live. It means freedom to leave a job that isn't working for you to pursue something better. And it means dignity, the kind that comes from knowing you can care for yourself and your family without fear. That's the heart of what we're working toward every day."

"Hit To Be Fit" Day was a real hit

A day of celebrating the great sport of tennis during "May Is National Tennis Month" was a real hit. The special event, "Hit to Be Fit" Day, was held on May 10 in conjunction with more than 300 other tennis facilities and sites across the country that were playing tennis simultaneously, showcased the ease and fun of learning tennis while benefiting from a great cardio workout.

Twenty-four tennis enthusiasts, from very beginners to accomplished players, gathered at Council Rock North High School's tennis courts to participate in Red Ball—short-court rallying that provides a great way to learn and practice the game—as well as Cardio Triples—heart-pumping match play that keeps everyone moving.

BCTA (Bucks County Tennis Association) coaches Craig Batten and Cielo Orjuela led the group through various warmup and play activities. In addition to learning and improving their tennis games, participants enjoyed camaraderie, laughter, and giveaways at the end of the match. Kudos to Tom Engler for receiving the "Most Enthusiastic" award, which was challenging to select given all the on-court spirit.

The BCTA, which hosted the event, thanks its coaches, the USTA, and USTA Middle States for their support. And, of course, it thanks the great group of tennis enthusiasts who came out to enjoy the fun (and battle the wind).

The BCTA offers public park programs in communities throughout Bucks County with multiple five-week offerings from May through October. Don't miss the fun! To register for a program near you, visit playtennis.usta.com/buckscounty.

Capital Health first in Mercer and Bucks Counties to offer minimally invasive treatment option for stress urinary incontinence

Capital Health Center for Incontinence and Pelvic Health is the first and only practice in Mercer County, New Jersey and Bucks County, Pennsylvania to offer Bulkamid, a safe and effective minimally invasive option for treating stress urinary incontinence (SUI).

Capital Health has been designated as a Bulkamid Center of Excellence in recognition of their staff's experience, expertise with the procedure, the quality of positive patient outcomes, and their commitment to improving the patient experience.

Bucks County Opportunity Council celebrates Community Action Month

The Community Action Network is a robust state and local force that helps empower hardworking families to achieve economic independence rather than keeping them reliant on government assistance. There are nearly 1,000 agencies across the country working every day to create economic opportunities, strengthen local communities, and help families find pathways to prosperity. This year, Bucks County Opportunity Council (BCOC), a proud member of the Community Action Network, commemorates 60 years helping families throughout Bucks County.

"Each May, during Community Action Month, we reflect on the impact our programs and our network has had on families," said Erin Lukoss, CEO and Executive Director of BCOC.

"Last year alone, we served over 57,000 people in Bucks County, and Community Action Agencies served over 15 million across the country with services like job training, financial education, and small business support, helping families build skills to achieve long-term financial freedom."

Community Action Agencies ensure that hard-working American families have access to the opportunities they need to thrive, while also promoting local economic growth and reducing government dependency. All agencies are locally controlled with boards of directors composed of local elected officials, private and public sector representatives, and engaged community residents. "We are proud of our

Pickering Manor

Celebrating community and compassion on the green

For 35 years, the Newtown Rotary Golf Outing has brought together local leaders, businesses, and golf enthusiasts for more than just a day on the green—it's been a celebration of community, service, and support.

Last year's outing raised over $25,000 for Pickering Manor, Newtown's nonprofit Life Plan Community. But beyond the dollars raised, the event highlights the deep bond shared between two mission-driven organizations dedicated to service.

"The Rotary has been nothing short of incredible," said David Woodhead, CEO of Pickering Manor. "Their continued support over the decades has directly enhanced the lives of our residents. Thanks to their 2024 contributions, we were able to purchase new Hoyer lifts, which improve both resident safety and caregiver support in our Skilled Nursing neighborhood."

Woodhead adds, "Their motto, 'service above self,' is more than a phrase—it's something they live out with every gesture, every donation, every moment spent advocating for us and our surrounding community. We are honored to have them as steadfast partners."

Much of the event's success can be credited to the dedicated Golf Committee, whose planning and outreach efforts ensure a smooth and successful fundraiser each year. In appreciation, Pickering Manor treated committee members to a celebratory lunch.

From morning tee-offs to the closing awards ceremony, the Rotary's Golf Outing is a heartfelt reminder of what's possible when community and compassion come together.

This year's Golf Outing will be held on June 2 at the Trenton Country Club. If you missed the chance to join us this year, there's always next time. Mark your calendar for next year's outing and be part of something truly meaningful.

Friends Village

As we approach the halfway point of 2025, there's no slowing down at Friends Village! With the arrival of warmer days, residents have been embracing the outdoors—most recently by gathering to plant and share joy in the garden. The coming weeks promise even more opportunities to connect and celebrate, from our table at the Senior Games Kickoff on May 28 at Bucks County Community College to Welcome Day on June 8, where we'll be sharing small gifts and big smiles with our community.

As we continue to celebrate Older Americans Month this May, we proudly embrace this year's theme: Flip the Script on Aging. This theme challenges outdated narratives and encourages a fresh perspective on what it means to grow older. Rather than seeing aging as a time of decline, we highlight the strength, wisdom, and valuable contributions that older adults bring to our families, communities, and society. Throughout the month, we are engaging in events and conversations that honor the diverse experiences of older Americans. By flipping the script, we aim to reshape attitudes and celebrate aging as a dynamic, enriching, and purposeful stage of life.

And speaking of milestones—our Friends For All Time Gala on October 11 is fast approaching! This special event will celebrate 125 years since Paxson Hall first opened its doors. Built in 1900 by Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice Edward Paxson and gifted to the Bucks Quarterly Meeting of Quakers, Paxson Hall has provided a warm, welcoming home for older adults ever since.

In preparation for its next century, we're embarking on an important renovation to replace Paxson Hall's aging heating and cooling systems and install a fire suppression system for added safety. These upgrades not only improve comfort and security but will also make the building more energy-efficient and environmentally friendly. At Friends Village, we're committed to being an active part of the community and a valuable resource to those around us. After all, Friends Village isn't just part of the neighborhood—
