Warwick Township’s parking lot buzzed with energy on May 3 as the 14th Annual Spring Cleaning Flea Market returned for another year of community connection and treasure hunting. Hosted at the Warwick Township building’s parking lot in Jamison, the event attracted sellers and shoppers eager to clean out closets, find bargains, and enjoy a morning out with fellow community members.

This flea market has grown in size and popularity since its inception. What began with 20 sellers

Feed the birds all summer long!

Now that the snowbirds have returned to Canada to find respite from the heat, what we have around us are year-round residents like Blue Jays and Cardinals, and summer residents like Rose-breasted Grosbeak, Indigo Buntings, and a number of other birds that are potential visitors to your feeders.

We are often asked at the store, “Should I stop feeding birds in the summer?” Our usual response is, “Do you like seeing birds at your feeder?” If the answer is yes, then while some birds might be less active or busy catering to juvenile birds, you can still yield the rewards by keeping seeds in your summer feeders all summer long!

It's also important to provide a source of water, and our variety of bird baths are the perfect way to do so! Keep it in an area of part sun and add one of our copper purification disks to slow algae growth. If possible, have it near an accessible hose for easy cleaning and refilling. Birds will drink from it and enjoy splashing around when taking a bath as well.

And of course, summer is best for Ruby-throated Hummingbirds - we have a wide variety of nectar feeders available.

Join our Daily Savings Club and save 15% on bird food year round, receive a free gift, and earn rewards points toward coupons. Free local delivery is available or online-orders $75 or more ships free. FeederScaping Services are available for all members. Call to make an appointment.

We have a full selection of the freshest and finest bird seeds available, in addition to birdhouses, feeders, pole systems, squirrel-proof feeders, birdbaths, baffles, binoculars and a bird feeder camera system.

Bird Watching can even reduce stress; we all need that!

TJ Martin, Inc.

A full-service contractor for all of your roofing and remodeling needs

A roof provides protection from the elements and ensures the safety of the inhabitants.

Over time, a roof may start to deteriorate and develop issues that could compromise its functionality. Here are some signs to look for to determine if it's time to replace your roof:

Age: The age of your roof is one of the most critical factors in determining if it needs replacement. Generally, a well-maintained roof lasts around 20-25 years.

Curling, buckling, or missing shingles: If you notice that your shingles are curling, buckling, or missing, it's a sign that your roof is reaching the end of its lifespan. These issues can allow water to seep under the shingles and cause significant damage to the underlying structure.

Damaged flashing: Flashing is the metal or plastic material that seals the edges and joints of your roof. If you notice any cracks or damage to your flashing, it's a sign that your roof may be leaking.

Sagging roof deck: A sagging roof deck is a sign that your roof has sustained significant water damage. This can happen if your roof has been leaking for an extended period. If you notice any sagging, it's crucial to have your roof inspected by a professional immediately.

High energy bills: If your energy bills have been steadily increasing, it could be a sign that your roof is no longer adequately insulating your home.

Replacing your roof may seem like a daunting task, but it's a necessary investment that can save you from more significant expenses in the future. If you notice any of the signs mentioned above, it's time to consider a replacement.

Empower Wheels Car Clinic provides free car maintenance

Services to families in need

On Saturday, May 3, Drive And Thrive hosted its most recent Empower Wheels Car Clinic at Koller Automotive in Bensalem, providing free vehicle maintenance to individuals and families facing financial and personal hardship. Thanks to the generous partnership of Koller Automotive, 15 vehicles received vital services including oil changes, fluid top-offs, and other general maintenance completely free of charge.

Throughout the event, participants enjoyed a festive Cinco de Mayo-themed nacho bar while their vehicles were being serviced. Once maintenance was complete, each car received a complimentary hand wash, courtesy of dedicated volunteers.

Spring allergies got you down? Your AC filter might be to blame Spring brings sunshine, fresh air, and for many of us, sniffles and sneezes. While you may be quick to blame blooming trees and high pollen counts, your indoor air could be part of the problem. If your AC filter hasn't been changed or cleaned recently, it might be circulating allergens instead of keeping them out.

Your HVAC system works hard to maintain a comfortable temperature, but it also plays a big role in your home's air quality. A dirty or clogged filter can't trap dust, pollen, and pet dander effectively, which means those particles stay in the air you breathe.

Don't Let a Dirty Filter Ruin Spring

How often should you check your AC filter? It depends on your filter type:

- Disposable filters: Swap them out every 1-3 months. Households with pets or allergy sufferers should lean toward the monthly mark.
- Washable filters: These should be cleaned every three months. After rinsing, make sure they're fully dry before putting them back in place.

Pro tip: Always give the filter rack a quick vacuum or wipe-down when you change or clean the filter; it helps keep dust from blowing back into your system.

You may also consider upgrading your system with HEPA filters or UV lights. These additions to your system can further improve your home's air quality.

Let Us Help You Breathe Easier

At Kenderdine's Heating Oil & HVAC, we know how easy it is to forget about routine maintenance. That's why we offer professional AC and heat pump tune-ups to help keep your system clean, efficient, and allergy-season ready.

Call us at 215-968-2041 or visit www.kenderdines.com to schedule your spring service or to quote upgrades like HEPA filters and UV lights, and breathe a little easier this season.

One participant, Maryanne of North Wales, shared, "I am a single parent of two children with multiple disabilities. Drive and Thrive is the only resource I have found to help with car repairs. I take my children to so many doctor appointments and therapies at CHOP and Nemours that having a car is essential to help them get the care they need to flourish. Thank you so much Drive and Thrive for making sure my car is safe so I can keep my focus on helping my children and supporting them. I am so grateful you saw a need and took action caring for the community."

While applications for the Empower Wheels Car Clinic

40 years of putting Bucks County homeowners first

In Bucks County, where pride in homeownership runs deep, Rosenello's Windows, Siding and Roofing has stood out for four decades—not just for high-quality work, but for its unwavering commitment to customer service.

Since opening their doors 40 years ago, Rosenello's has built its reputation by focusing on what matters most: the homeowner. From Newtown to Doylestown, Yardley to Bensalem, residents across Bucks County have come to rely on Rosenello's not just for exceptional windows, siding, and roofing—but for a service experience that's honest, attentive, and stress-free.

"At Rosenello's, we don't just install roofs or windows—we build relationships," says the team. "Every project starts with listening, and every customer deserves respect, clear communication, and follow-through."

Whether you're replacing aging siding or exploring energy-efficient window options, Rosenello's takes the time to understand your goals and make recommendations that suit your needs and budget—never with pressure, always with integrity. Pennsbury Manor adopts new rescue horse: Norway

Norway, a former racing horse, joins Pennsbury from a Colorado "kill pen"

Pennsbury Manor, William Penn's reconstructed estate on the Delaware River in Bucks County, welcomes Norway, a recently rescued racing horse, to its educational barnyard.

Norway Hanover, is a retired Trotter for the Standardbred harness racing industry, who raced across the US and Canada. These horses often end up in cramped and unhealthy "kill pens" until they can be auctioned for slaughter. Norway was rescued by the Standardbred Retirement Foundation from a kill pen in Colorado.

Norway has now found a forever home at Pennsbury Manor. After a period of rehabilitation to improve his physical condition, he joined Pennsbury in late March.

At 16 years old, Norway is a handsome horse who brings a calm and gentle demeanor, making him an ideal addition to the historic site's educational programs centered around historical animal husbandry, which represent farm life during William Penn's time on the property. Many local children will have the chance to interact with Norway during his life at Pennsbury.

"Norway joins Pennsbury's existing herd, which includes Arnie the horse, the oxen team, sheep, and geese," said Carole Cunliffe, Animal Curator at Pennsbury Manor. "Under the care of our dedicated team, he is already getting along famously with all his barnyard companions, including the barn cat. Norway will play a crucial role in teaching visiting students and families about the types of animals that historically would have been at Pennsbury Manor during the 17th century—a perfect representative of the estate's historical authenticity."

Pennsbury recently said farewell to TC, a beloved 31-year-old mare, who recently passed away.

Considered a senior horse, Norway's care comes with costs, including hoof care, targeted nutrition, and regular veterinary check-ups. Pennsbury is currently seeking financial support for Norway's care to ensure that he enjoys a long healthy life on the estate.

As the days warm up, your thermostat can help you stay comfortable while keeping energy bills in check. Here are simple adjustments that can make a big difference:

Raise the temperature when you're away

When no one is home, set your thermostat 7–10 degrees higher. According to the U.S. Department of Energy, this can lower cooling costs by up to 10%.

Use a programmable or smart thermostat

Modern thermostats automatically adjust temperatures based on your schedule. This saves energy without the hassle of constant manual changes.

Use ceiling fans with your AC

Fans help circulate cool air, allowing you to set your thermostat about 4 degrees higher and still feel comfortable.

Remember: fans cool people, not rooms, so turn them off when you leave.

Avoid placing heat-producing appliances near the thermostat

Lamps, TVs, and other electronics can cause the thermostat to register false heat readings, making your system run longer than necessary.

Get ahead of the heat

Spring is the perfect time to develop energy-saving habits before the full summer heat arrives. These small adjustments reduce wear on your system and lower utility bills.

Call ECI Comfort today to schedule your $79 AC Tune-Up! Our technicians will ensure your system is running at peak efficiency before the summer heat sets in. Call us at 267-227-0995 or visit our website www.ecicomfort.com/ac-2025.

Andrew's Lawn Ranger

Following last year's drought, we still have a rain deficit. We had a cold and dry winter. Plants already drought-stressed were damaged further by extreme cold, coupled with temperature fluctuations in March and April. While lawns may look lush right now, they are still lacking adequate soil moisture.

Flea, Tick and Mosquito Suppression: It's flea and tick season, and mosquitos will be around in large numbers this year. Let us help you enjoy your time outdoors with monthly visits to treat your property for these pests. Applications are made by fogging the perimeter of the property and spraying nesting areas, using organic control with peppermint and rosemary oils. Plant material around the house (patio, deck, pool, swing set wood lines if applicable) will also be treated.

Turf Care: We are finishing our second round of crabgrass preventer and weed control. It's not too late to get you on our program! Mowing height is the most frequent question we receive. The shorter the turf, the more stress on the plant. Height should be in the 3.75" to 4.25" range. Change the mowing direction so you don't create a 'pattern' in your lawn. Sharp mower blades will prevent your turf from getting a fuzzy brown look.

Plant Health Care: Are your plants protected from insects? Our technicians are applying foliar insect, mite, and fungicide sprays now. This is crucial due to current plant stress as well as rising temperatures coming in the next few weeks. Continued watering of trees and shrubs would be advised until soil moisture levels improve.

Deer Control: Give deer a reason to go elsewhere. Our monthly treatments make your plants taste and smell bad to hungry deer. Protect your trees and shrubs year-round.

Do you have a box of old videotapes tucked away? VHS, 8mm, Hi8, MiniDV, and other tape formats were never meant to last forever.

Bucks County Community College expands dual credit for high school students with $1M state grant Bucks County Community College has received a $1 million Dual Credit Innovation Grant from the Pennsylvania Department of Education to enable more high school students to enroll in dual credit programs, giving them more opportunities to chart their own course and prepare for successful careers.

Max's Electric Bikes

A beginner's guide to electric bikes: What you need to know

Electric bicycles, or e-bikes, have become increasingly popular, offering the perfect mix of traditional cycling with electric assistance. For beginners, they provide a great introduction to cycling for commuting, recreation, or fitness—without the physical strain that often comes with regular bikes.

At their core, e-bikes are standard bicycles equipped with an electric motor, battery, and control system. These components work together to provide pedaling assistance, helping riders tackle hills, ride longer distances, and reduce fatigue. Most models use a pedal-assist system, meaning the motor activates only while pedaling. Many also include a throttle feature that allows one to ride without using the pedals at all. Assistance levels are usually adjustable, giving riders flexibility based on terrain and effort.

If you're considering buying an e-bike, key factors include range, motor power, and battery type. Range—how far the bike can go on one charge—depends on battery capacity, terrain, rider weight, and level of assistance. Many models have 500-watt motors, which are suitable for general, all-around use. Heavier-duty models may offer 750 watts or more, ideal for hilly areas or heavier loads.

Come join the e-bike revolution! Max's is ready to help you find the best e-bike for you

A removable battery is recommended for easier charging and future replacement.

Understanding local regulations is also important. Many states, including Pennsylvania and New Jersey, use a modified version of the three-class system. Generally, e-bikes

BCCC President & CEO Patrick M. Jones said, “The Bucks County College Access Network will allow academically qualified high school students to take college-level courses while still enrolled in high school to enable them to get a jump start on their collegiate education, while saving a substantial amount of money on college tuition.” Jones added, “Bucks CAN will bring high school teachers and college professors together in a county-wide network to ensure students from every community of Bucks County have access to higher education, and the grant will remove or reduce financial barriers faced by many families.”

parked at the front of the parking lot has expanded to its capacity of 29 sellers now utilizing the front and side of the parking lot. It sells out quickly every year.

"It's a community event, and the idea of establishing it was to bring people out to our facility and get them to see all that Warwick Township has to offer like our park and playground," said Dan Sharapan, Director of Parks, Recreation & Open Space at Warwick Township.

This year's market saw eager shoppers lining up well before the official 8 am start. "The first shopper showed up at 7:15 am," Sharapan said. "Only half the vendors were even in their spots at that time, but between 7:30 to 10:30 am, it was exceptionally busy. Everyone wants to be the first one there and get the good deals."

The event, which has always been held the Saturday before Mother's Day, encourages residents to purge their homes of unused items, from old toys and clothes to household goods, and turn their "trash" into someone else's "treasure." Vendors receive two parking spaces: one for their vehicle and one for their items. According to Sharapan, the goal is simple: "We want them to bring home less than they brought that morning. That means it was a successful day."

While Warwick's event stands out, it's also sparked a ripple effect across neighboring communities. "Other nearby neighborhoods realized this was a great event," Sharapan noted. "They piggyback on our flea market, which is great. Many people who go to flea markets have their lists and they hit them all; they run from one to the next."

Despite the growing interest, Warwick's event remains rooted in community values. Sharapan emphasized the importance of keeping it local and personal. "We don't want this to become a sale of marketed products. We want people to clean out their homes and bring things to sell like old children's toys, clothes, storage containers, things like that."

In fact, the event's name might soon reflect its garage-sale spirit more clearly. "We might be changing the name to 'yard sale' instead of 'flea market' so people understand it's not a market; it's more of a community garage sale," Sharapan added.

With its steady turnout and neighborly feel, the Spring Cleaning Flea Market has become a hallmark of Warwick Township's seasonal calendar, a place to declutter, find hidden gems, and connect with the local community.

As one smiling vendor said while packing up unsold wares: "It's not about what you sell, it's about the people you meet and the stories you hear, but it's nice to go home with a lighter car, too."

Bucks County Opportunity Council celebrates Community Action Month

The Community Action Network is a robust state and local force that helps empower hardworking families to achieve economic independence rather than keeping them reliant on government assistance. There are nearly 1,000 agencies across the country working every day to create economic opportunities, strengthen local communities, and help families find pathways to prosperity. This year, Bucks County Opportunity Council (BCOC), a proud member of the Community Action Network, commemorates 60 years helping families throughout Bucks County.

Community Action Agencies ensure that hard-working American families have access to the opportunities they need to thrive, while also promoting local economic growth and reducing government dependency. All agencies are locally controlled with boards of directors composed of local elected officials, private and public sector representatives, and engaged community residents. To celebrate the continued success of Community Action and raise awareness throughout Bucks County, follow BCOC on social media, visit their website at www.bcoc.org, donate, and get involved by volunteering.

Heller's Seafood A family business with an emphasis on service!

Heller seafood has been a family run business since 1978. Joining the team in 1993, current owner John Reinheimer had watched, learned and been a part of shaping the business for over 30 years. Almost three years ago, he sat down with his now future wife and decided to buy the business from the previous owner.

Together as a family they have five wonderful children who have all played a role in helping to make this venture a success, whether working the counter, cooking in the kitchen, helping with the office paperwork and even waking up at 3:30 am to go to the fish market with their dad. John's fiancé has been his biggest supporter in making this dream come true.

John sees many possibilities when he looks ahead at the future of this family venture including additional locations, expanded menu options, the ability to supply more local restaurants and small retailers with a high-quality product that is sure to satisfy their most discerning customers.

Heller's Seafood puts a huge emphasis on customer service. They value their customers because they know it is their support that makes their business so successful.

Come visit the staff at Heller's Seafood and see first-hand what makes them so special.

"Hit To Be Fit" Day was a real hit

A day of celebrating the great sport of tennis during "May Is National Tennis Month" was a real hit. The special event, "Hit to Be Fit" Day, was held on May 10 in conjunction with more than 300 other tennis facilities and sites across the country that were playing tennis simultaneously, showcased the ease and fun of learning tennis while benefiting from a great cardio workout.

Twenty-four tennis enthusiasts, from very beginners to accomplished players, gathered at Council Rock North High School's tennis courts to participate in Red Ball—short-court rallying that provides a great way to learn and practice the game—as well as Cardio Triples—heart-pumping match play that keeps everyone moving.

BCTA (Bucks County Tennis Association) coaches Craig Batten and Cielo Orjuela led the group through various warmup and play activities. In addition to learning and improving their tennis games, participants enjoyed camaraderie, laughter, and giveaways at the end of the match. Kudos to Tom Engler for receiving the "Most Enthusiastic" award, which was challenging to select given all the on-court spirit.

The BCTA, which hosted the event, thanks its coaches, the USTA, and USTA Middle States for their support. And, of course, it thanks the great group of tennis enthusiasts who came out to enjoy the fun (and battle the wind).

The BCTA offers public park programs in communities throughout Bucks County with multiple five-week offerings from May through October. Don't miss the fun! To register for a program near you, visit playtennis.usta.com/buckscounty.

open later, sometimes displaying racks of merchandise outdoors. Although primarily an outside dining experience, over time, many local businesses have taken advantage of the additional customers flowing into town by expanding their hours to accommodate the crowd.

"We started this event in 2020 during COVID to support businesses since restaurants couldn't allow people inside," said Caitlin Hernandez, Director of Parks and Recreation for Doylestown Borough. "We thought it would just be something to help businesses during COVID, but it became such a well-attended event that we continued it."

Although they began with just a few restaurants and shops, the Block Parties have grown significantly in both size and popularity. "Over time, they expanded to more seating outside, live music, and games for kids," Hernandez explained. "We close the streets and give these businesses a blank canvas of what to offer, and they've really used the opportunity to provide additional family-friendly attractions like hiring outdoor musicians. It's great."

The events rotate locations to give various businesses on different streets in the borough the chance to participate. Hernandez notes, "Each street gets back-to-back dates so they can plan accordingly. I'm still getting additional restaurants who want to get involved in the future."

The impact of the Block Parties is felt throughout the borough, not just by business owners, but by residents and by out-of-town visitors.

"The community responded to it in a very positive way," said Hernandez. "That community spirit is what keeps the energy high, no matter the weather. 'I think the community aspect of it appeals to all people. Even if it's a hot evening, people still come out,'" she added.

The Block Parties not only support the local economy but also offer a unique summer experience that blends Doylestown's small-town charm with the big energy of patrons wanting to dine, shop and have fun in this historic community.

Reservations are recommended for dining; guests should contact restaurants directly. Final seating is at 10 pm. The Block Parties are sponsored by Doylestown Borough and continue to grow in popularity each year, promising an exciting 2025 season.

Don't miss the upcoming 2025 Doylestown Borough Block Parties:
May 30–31. Printer's Alley (off E. State Street)

June 6–7. West Court (Hamilton to Harvey streets)

June 27–28. N. Main Street

July 11–12. W. State Street

July 25–26. N. Main Street

August 8–9. W. State Street

August 22–23. Printer's Alley

September 12–13. N. Main Street

September 26–27. W. State Street

Whether you're a longtime resident or a first-time visitor, the Doylestown Borough Block Parties are the perfect way to enjoy summer evenings in the community.

Kirsten Shultis and Angie Diodato, both from Furlong, enjoy outdoor dining.

SCORE's small business mentoring, resources help military veterans succeed

During National Military Appreciation Month and beyond, SCORE mentors offer resources for veterans to start and grow their entrepreneurial enterprises.

Veterans' training, resolve and fortitude to overcome challenges make them the ideal entrepreneur.

They soar as small business owners. According to research, 80 percent of the 1.7 million veteran-owned business owners consider themselves successful. The small business five-year survival rate for veterans is double that of the non-veteran population.

Data from the U.S. Small Business Administration has shown that small business owners with an established mentor have twice the success rate—70 percent versus 35 percent—as those who do not have a mentor.

In conjunction with National Military Appreciation Month in May, SCORE, a national nonprofit organization that assists small businesses, has developed specific resources for use by its 10,000 mentors nationally in mentoring veterans.

The SCORE Veterans Small Business Resource Guide features veterans-specific resources to offer insight on developing a business plan, securing funding, starting a business, buying an existing business, buying a franchise, connecting with one of SCORE's volunteer mentors, and gaining a better understanding of business through webinars and workshops.

"Volunteering at SCORE is my way of showing appreciation to those who helped and guided me during my career while sharing my background and experience to help entrepreneurs succeed," said SCORE Mid-Atlantic Regional Vice President Ed Coleman. "While I enjoy working with all SCORE clients, as a U.S. Army veteran, I particularly enjoy working with veterans to translate their military experience into entrepreneurship. Helping clients realize their dreams is very gratifying and the essence of the SCORE mission."

SCORE Bucks County Chapter Co-Chair Leah Cianfrani said mentors continually expand their knowledge base to better assist veterans on their entrepreneurial journey.

"Military transitioning from active duty have different needs than civilians in terms of starting a business," said Cianfrani. "It's wonderful to have veterans' resources at our volunteers' fingertips to aid in mentoring our service men and women."

Veterans account for about 10 percent of SCORE's client base. Veterans own 10 percent of small businesses and 14 percent of franchises. Since franchisors have a defined plan of what the business should entail, veterans represent the perfect franchisee given their ability to effectively execute plans as intended.

Nationally, veterans own nearly 2 million businesses, employing more than 5 million Americans, and generating more than $1 trillion in annual income. Of those, 40 percent of veteran-owned businesses generate more than $500,000 in annual revenue.
