A Fast, Family-Friendly Dinner Use on-hand ingredients for a quick-fix meal

(Family Features) Between juggling the ever-shifting to-do list and busy weeknights, there's not always time left in the day to comb through cookbooks to find the perfect recipe. Even with a potential meal plan in mind, life can get in the way, and running to the grocery store might not be a top priority.

For a quick meal without a lot of hassle, an option such as Eckrich Smoked Sausage can be paired with whatever you have in the refrigerator or pantry for a fast, foolproof meal the whole family can enjoy. Since it is pre-cooked, all you have to do is heat and eat, taking the guesswork out of cook time while offering a rich and savory protein option for a balanced and delicious meal.

With flavors and forms ranging from the Original Skinless Smoked Sausage Rope to spicy Jalapeno & Cheddar Smoked Sausage Links, a home-cooked breakfast, lunch or dinner is just moments away - no instructions or plans needed. You can be a rebel without a cookbook and deliver diverse and delightful meals for your loved ones, such as this Veggie Smoked Sausage Stir-Fry.

Frozen Dog Treats To Keep Them Cool

What You Need to Make Your Own Frozen Dog Treats

There are a few items you might need to make some of these frozen treats for your dog. You will need something to put your frozen dog treats into so you can put them in the freezer. This can be some ice cube trays you may already have around the house, or you can buy some of these cute dog inspired ones.

Ice cube trays These cute doggy ice molds make great shaped frozen treats for your pup.

Popsicle molds Ready made popsicle molds make a great container for your frozen treats.

Cake tins also come in handy if your dog loves larger icy treats. A bundt cake tin is a good type to use.

Cupcake liners like these are also another option to put your frozen treats into.

Blender or food processor is a quick and easy way to mix everything together. The Kitchen Aid blender is a good one for larger recipes, or the Nutribullet is great for smaller batches.

You can really make your own frozen dog treats any way you like and most of the recipes we have found follow a few simple rules. Here's all you really need to create your own frozen treats for dogs.

THE BASE:

Yogurt. Use natural or Greek yogurt with no added sugar.

Water. Filtered water is best.

Broth. Chicken, beef, or vegetable broth make a wonderful base for frozen treats. Choose a low sodium broth, or make your own.

Fruit juices. Make your own fresh juice, or buy juice without any added sugar.

THE FILLING:

This can really be any food your dog loves. Get creative and come up with your own tasty concoctions or use the recipes below as a guide.

Fruits like berries, bananas, and apples.

Vegetables like pumpkin, sweet potato, carrot, and beans.

Tasty foods like peanut butter and honey

Superfoods like kale, oily fish, and broccoli.

Rawhide sticks make a great addition to popsicles or cupcake style treats.

IT'S WARMING UP!

We are already experiencing very hot weather and our pets depend on us to keep them safe from the elements. Here are a few tips/reminders to keep your pets healthy and stay on the right side of the law!

- Provide plenty of fresh drinkable water.
- Provide shade other than a dog house when outside.
- Exercise early in the morning or late in the evening.
- Be mindful of hot pavement/ground cover that may burn paws.
- Don't leave pets in motor vehicles, even for a few minutes.
- Treat your yard and pets for fleas and mosquitoes.

RECOGNIZING TODAY'S LEADERS

The Press and Standard is currently working on a special publication honoring Colleton County's top 10 leaders over the age of 40 and 10 leaders under the age of 40. Help us recognize "Colleton County's Local Leaders" by contributing a short story of individuals you feel deserve to be featured.

Who are Colleton County's top leaders? We invite you to ask your co-workers, friends, and family this question over the next 2 months. Consider civic and religious groups, local industry and retail, police officers, educators, health professionals - if you know anyone who is making Colleton County a better place, we want to hear about them.

Deadline for nominations is June 3, 2019; nominees must live in Colleton County and be in the age range. Email nomination to editor@lowcountry.com. Include the person's name, age, hometown, plus a paragraph of 400 or less on why we should include him or her.
