Power Up Athletic Performance with Real Milk-Inspired Dishes

(Family Features) From little ones learning the game to professional athletes pushing sports to new levels, nutrition impacts the ability to re-energize, stay hydrated and reach peak performance. Now, new data shows that one naturally nutrient-rich beverage provides more benefits than previously thought: dairy milk.

For years, real milk has been recognized as a powerhouse beverage that delivers nine essential nutrients, including calcium, protein and vitamin D. However, updated nutrient daily values for nutrition labeling and more robust government nutrition databases have provided data that shows real milk delivers 13 essential nutrients, making it a good or excellent source of four more vital nutrients: potassium, zinc, selenium and iodine. These nutrients help build strong bones, maintain a healthy immune system and maintain your central nervous system, all of which directly impact athletic performance.

"As a kid, you thought of dairy milk as the drink that helped you grow and have strong bones," said Briana Butler, MCN, RDN, LD, a performance and sports dietitian who advises athletes. "As you get older and start paying more attention to drinks' attributes, you realize that truth applies to adults and athletes as well. Real milk is a trustworthy and nutrient-rich way to repair, rehydrate and replenish muscles and bodies. It is truly an undeniable favorite of mine to fuel performance."

As the "original sports drink," real milk has fueled athletes for centuries and offers a natural nutrient combination not found in formulated sports drinks. It provides benefits for fitness enthusiasts of all ages including building lean muscle, maintaining strong bones and supporting a healthy immune system.

With 13 nutrients, real milk isn't just the ultimate training fuel, it also makes your favorite recipes more tasty and nutritious. Dishes such as Zucchini Oatmeal Muffins are made in just 15 minutes and are a quick and nutritious snack that can be enjoyed on the go, crumbled over yogurt or paired with eggs for a morning power-up. You can also try Rattle Snake Pasta, a better-for-you version of a family favorite that combines rotisserie chicken, peppers and linguine.

The second letter to the people of Colleton County!

This letter contains excerpts from a book titled: Exposing Deceptive Teaching in our Churches. This short writing brings together the half-truths currently being taught on salvation, and the unknown half not being taught. It will enable you to easily see the difference between the gospel Jesus Preached, and the perverted version Jesus and the Apostles warned us about.

First, I want to state for the record that there are two methods through which one can obtain assurance that Jesus is the Messiah. The first is by studying the gospels, evidence of His miracles, and the historical records of the Jewish, Greek and Armenian People; and that is the method used in most Seminaries. The second and only method through which we can factually know that Jesus is the Christ is to be born-again in strict compliance with the following message Jesus preached.

Jesus said, "I say unto you, he that enters not in by the "Door" [the gospel He preached] into the sheepfold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber." (John 10:1). Paul stated, "But though we or an angel from heaven preach any other gospel unto you than that we have preached, let him be accursed." (Galatians 1:8).

Before ascending into Heaven to take His seat on the right hand of God, Jesus instructed the Apostles saying: "John truly baptized you with water but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days hence. And you shall receive "Power" after the Holy Spirit is come upon you." (Acts 1:5-8). The power is in part the gift of righteousness that Paul mentioned in Romans 5:17, without which it is impossible to live our lives in obedience to Christ Jesus. Secondly, the Holy Spirit awakens our human spirit to the spiritual realm of life, after which, we then factually know that Jesus is the Messiah.

Jesus stated, "I am the resurrection and the life, and he that believes in me, though he were dead shall live. And whosoever lives and believes in me shall never die." (John 11:25-26). Jesus was obviously alive when He made that statement, thus those who believed in Him at the time were believers in the true sense of the word. Albeit, those who remained obedient throughout His ministry received the baptism of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost, after which, they then factually knew that Jesus is the Christ.

Jesus explained the manner that we can know Him saying, "Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." (John 15:13). He also told us how we could become His friend saying: "Behold, I stand at the door [of your heart] and knock; if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup [fellowship] with him, and he with me." (Revelations 3:20). Our Savior told us how we could make that happen in our lives saying, "If a man loves me, he will keep my words; and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our Abode with him." (John 14:23).

Jesus stated, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." (John 3:5-6). Approximately 550 years before Christ God Himself explained what would happen within us upon being born-again. He said, "A New Heart will I give you, and a New Spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh [meaning God's kind of love]. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause [enable] you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my judgements and do them." (Ezekiel 36:26-27).

The Apostle Paul acknowledged the fulfillment of God's words when he proclaimed to the world saying: "The Love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, which is given unto us." (Roman 5:5). Upon receiving God's Spirit within us, we receive God's kind of love in our heart, through which we then love Him more than all else. This kind of love is a testament that accompanies our ability to factually know that we have been born of the Spirit.

Jesus stated, "He that loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; And he that loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And he that takes not his cross, and follows after me is not worthy of me." (Matthew 10:37-38). The truth is, God is love, and when His Spirit takes up residence within us, so does His love, and only through His type of love are we made capable of loving Him above all else.

Jesus explained what we must do to be born-again saying, "He who has my commandments and keeps them, he it is that loves me, and he that loves me, shall be loved by my Father, and I too will love him, and will manifest [reveal] myself to him." (John 14:21). The Greek text also uses the word, "Manifest." The NIV states, "And I will Show myself to him." The Amplified Bible states, "I will make myself real to him." Clearly, Jesus wants you to know Him.

Jesus prefaced those Scriptures saying, "If you love me, keep my commandments, and I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another comforter that He may abide with you forever. Even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it [people of the world] sees him not, neither knows Him: But you know Him: For He dwells with you, and shall be in you." (John 14:15-17).

The same verse in the Greek text states, "The Spirit of truth, which the world cannot receive, because it [people of the world] beholds it [the Holy Spirit] not, nor knows it; but you know it, because it abides with you, and will be in you." The translators of the Greek text referred to the Holy Spirit as it because they did not want converts to wrongly believe that Jesus was referring to Himself when He said, "For He dwells with you, and will be in you."

Our Lord's words, "But you know Him" reveals that converts receive a taste of the Heavenly gift upon accepting Jesus, which is when God gives us the authority to be born of the Holy Spirit, (read Hebrews 6:4-5). Hence, new-converts are aware of the Holy Spirit's presence, especially during praise and worship. However, when saying, "And will be in you," Jesus made a definite distinction between His Spirit being with us versus abiding within us.

John 20:22, states that Jesus had breathed His Spirit onto the Apostles thereby garnishing them with His Spirit. This is the same manner that God's Spirit is with us when we first accept Him. It also explains why without God's Spirit abiding in him, Peter who had walked on water and seen the dead raised back to life, denied knowing Jesus three times on the night our Lord was arrested.

Jesus explained what happens to those who fail to follow His instructions, saying, "When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walks through dry places seeking rest, but finds none. Then he [the unclean spirit] says to himself, I will return into the house [convert] from whence I came out; and when he is come, he finds it [the convert] empty [of spiritual growth], swept [sins forgiven], and garnished [God's Spirit is with him]. Then goes he, and takes with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there, and the last state of that man is then worse than the first." (Matthew 12:43-45).

Notice that Jesus used the word Garnished, which means equipped or adorned, which means with you or on you; not in you. The N.I.V uses the word unoccupied in that verse, which clearly indicates that the convert had not yet received God's Spirit in him. As you can see, Jesus gave this new-convert the authority to become born-again by placing His Spirit with him, after which it was then up to the convert to seek God in earnest, or simply follow man.

The converts initial cleansing explains why the unclean spirit could not get back into him on his first attempt. However, as Jesus stated, the unclean spirit then sought help from the seven other more powerful evil spirits to help him deceive this new-convert into believing false doctrine. The seven more powerful spirits are those Satan uses to seduce and then deceive converts into trusting his wolves, who then teaches them to believe a perverted version of the gospel. After which, they then become a conduit Satan can use to pervert the salvation message when they share with others.

Referring to the many believers who have fallen into that trap, Jesus said, "The second state of that man is then worse than the first." Jesus said that because He knew that due to pride those who had accepted false doctrine would be extremely hard to reach with scriptural truth. He also knew that they would pass their false beliefs on to everyone they would share with. This is why Jesus said, "A corrupt tree cannot bring forth good fruit. Nor can a good tree bring forth corrupt fruit." (Matthew 7:15-20).

This is also why Jesus said, "Woe unto you, scribes, Pharisees, and hypocrites! For you compass sea and land [with your missionaries] to make one proselyte, [convert] and when he is made, you make him two-fold more the child of hell than yourselves." (Matthew 23:15). Clearly, Jesus was prophesying about Satan's wolves, because the Jews never put forth any effort to increase their numbers.

The Apostle John clarified the salvation message in a way that even a child can understand it. He said, "But to as many as received Him [Jesus], to them He gave power to become the sons of God. Even to them that believe in His name." (John 1:12). Notice that John's words received Him are past tense, and that immediately upon receiving Jesus we then receive the power to become the sons of God which is future tense.

The truth is, God gives us the power needed to become a born-again Christian the moment we accept Jesus by placing His Spirit with us to convict us of sin and to protect us from bad spirits while on our faith-walk, which I refer to as an engagement period.

Pay attention to the fact that John's words "To become the sons of God" are future tense. Meaning that we can then become a disciple of Christ through repentance, while diligently seeking spiritual truth through God's Word, and praying for the baptism of the Holy Spirit. Jesus said, "If you then being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children: How much more shall your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him." (Luke 11:13).

According to the Scriptures, believing in Jesus and accepting Him to become the Lord of our lives is merely the first step toward being born-again. The fact is, we receive the born-again experience when through our continued obedience, Jesus who sits on the right hand of God, urges our Heavenly Father to consummate a relationship with us by placing His Spirit in our heart, thereby ending the engagement period!

John concluded John 1:12, saying, "Even to them that believe in His name." However, those words do not fit the perverted narrative of the gospel, hence traitors of the faith have deleted them in several newer versions of the Bible. Nevertheless, by using those words, John was simply pointing out that the power needed to become a born-again Christian is also available to those who merely believe in Jesus, but have not invited Him into their heart.

The truth is, an individual's belief that Jesus is the Christ gives that person the inherent right to ask Jesus to become the Lord of his or her life. This is why John 3:18 states, "He that believes in Him is not condemned, but he that believes not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

Those who merely believe in Jesus, but has not yet accepted Him are neither saved nor condemned. They are not condemned because they are free to act on their belief at any time during their lives. Whereas, those that do not believe in Jesus will never accept Him, thus they condemn themselves.

If you would like a free e-copy of the book, simply e-mail Ed at josephenix@gmail.com and request your free copy. Remember, when you face Jesus at the final judgement, your pastor will not be there to defend you for your ignorance of spiritual truth. However, if by chance your pastor is there, would he or she say to Jesus: Forgive this convert, because I did not teach him properly?
