Turn to a Cheesy Snack Hack

(Family Features) Bring some fun (and simplicity) back to snacking with these three-ingredient Cheesy Meatball Bombs. Baked to golden brown in just 10-15 minutes, they're perfect for enjoying at home or sharing with a crowd. Discover more snack hacks at Culinary.net.

Cheesy Meatball Bombs
Recipe courtesy of "Cookin' Savvy"
Servings: 4

1 puff pastry sheet
12 thawed meatballs
1 package (8 ounces) shredded mozzarella cheese

marinara sauce, for serving Buffalo sauce, for serving barbecue sauce, for serving

Heat oven to 425 F.

Use rolling pin to thin out puff pastry then cut into 12 squares.

Place one meatball in each square with cheese. Close pastries around cheese and meatballs. For visible meatballs, leave hole on top of pastries. Place each ball in hole of muffin tin.

Bake 10-15 minutes. Pastry should be golden brown. Remove from pan and serve with marinara, Buffalo and barbecue dipping sauces.

Tip: Recipe can be doubled or tripled, as needed.

Celebrate Spring's Arrival with a Skillet Fish Fry

(Family Features) Nothing says spring like a fish fry with the catch of the day. This Pan-Fried Catfish recipe is perfect for enjoying flaky fillets without the mess. Find more springtime favorites by visiting Culinary.net.

Pan-Fried Catfish
Recipe courtesy of "Cookin' Savvy"
Servings: 4-6

1/3 cup flour
2 tablespoons mesquite seasoning (or seasoning of choice, such as lemon pepper)
1 stick butter
1/4 cup avocado oil (or oil of choice)
1-2 pounds thawed catfish fillets (1/2 pound each) cooked rice, for serving

In pie dish, mix flour and seasoning.

In skillet over medium heat, melt butter and add oil. Coat fish fillets in flour mixture on both sides. Place fish in skillet and fry 5 minutes then flip and fry 5 minutes.

Place fish on paper towel to drain excess oil then serve with rice.

Tip: If skillet is large enough, fry two fillets at once. If frying more than four fillets, discard butter and avocado oil then start fresh before frying more.
