

Arts at the Rocks* is honored to host internationally acclaimed organist, Maestro Hector Olivera

The Organ Committee at Desert Hills Presbyterian Church (DHPC) has now booked their second dedication concert for the state-of-the-art Rodgers Infinity 361 digital and pipe combination organ, and you can be assured that it will NEVER be played like Maestro Olivera will on Sunday, November 7th at 3:00 PM. The sanctuary is expected to be filled to capacity, creating an experience of a lifetime for those who can snag a FREE seat to this incredible event. Maestro Hector Olivera is a passionate, gifted, and unique musician, whose personal interpretations of both classical and popular music have amazed and delighted audiences around the world.

Born in Buenos Aires, Mr. Olivera began playing the pipe organ when he was three. At age five he played for the legendary Eva Perón; at twelve he entered the University of Buenos Aires and by eighteen had performed for heads of state and celebrities throughout Latin America. When offered a scholarship at the renowned Juilliard School of Music in New York, he moved to the United States. Three years later, Mr. Olivera's outstanding professional concert career was launched.

Mr. Olivera has performed solo concerts throughout the USA, Europe, Asia, Australia, Central and Latin America and as guest soloist with prominent symphony orchestras worldwide. Whether in a prestigious venue like Carnegie Hall, Royal Albert Hall, or the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris, the most sophisticated and demanding organ aficionados claim that Maestro Hector Olivera is 'one of the greatest organists in the world today.'

Follow the sign up link below to reserve your space. Members of the DHPC sponsoring Organ Committee, as well as the Rodgers Instruments representative, are personal acquaintances of Maestro Olivera. Additionally, Maestro Olivera will hold a workshop on Saturday, November 6th at 10:00 AM offering a unique opportunity to learn from the best.
