

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Love in All Its Forms: "Where There is Love" Opens at Ground Floor Artists

Surprise, AZ (January 28, 2024) – Weave your way into a celebration of human connection at Ground Floor Artists' newest exhibition, "Where There is Love," opening on January 31st and running through February 24th, 2024. This mesmerizing showcase explores the multifaceted depths of connection, from the tender threads of family and friendship to the passionate blaze of romance, all under one welcoming roof.

Discover a tapestry of artistic expressions as diverse as the emotions themselves. "Where There is Love" promises to be a haven for artistic exploration, a place where your heart resonates with the echoes of your own relationships and where you discover unexpected perspectives on the universal language of love.

- Free and open to the public: Tue-Fri, 10AM - 4PM, and Sat 10AM - 2PM
- Meet the Artists Reception: Delve deeper on February 9th, 2024, from 5PM - 7PM, as you converse with the creators and discover the stories behind their art.
- Location: 13343 W. Foxfire Dr. #3, Surprise, AZ.
- For More information visit groundfloorartists.com/art-gallery

Featured Artists: Panda Armstrong, Paula Artac, Michelle Bia, Janna Blackburn, Nancy Christy-Moore, Regina Cirillo, Mary Discher, Cynthia Dunn-Selph, Sue Eddy, Maureen Fairbanks, Barry Farmer, Wayne Frodl, Laura Gruici, Rafael Gutierrez, Beverly Howard, Vicki Jessing, Cynthia Kaegi, diana Kelley, Shelly Koss, Kara Marshall, Elizabeth Moore, George Palovich, Darlene Ritter, Brett Sampson, Sarah Simmerman, Jayne Smoley, Judith Visker, Marilyn Watkins, Mary Wolke

At Ground Floor Artists, we believe art is a bridge, connecting individuals and amplifying the voices of our community. "Where There is Love" is not just an exhibition; it's an invitation to embrace the messy, beautiful tapestry of human connection. Come explore, reflect, and celebrate the vibrant spectrum of love in all its forms.

Ground Floor Artists is a dynamic venue dedicated to fostering artistic expression and showcasing the diverse talents of emerging and established local artists. Our rotating gallery program provides a platform for fresh perspectives and a vibrant space for community engagement.

###

Media Contact:

Sarah Simmerman/Ground Floor Artists | groundfloorartists@gmail.com | 623-440-7083