

SCOTTSDALE CIVIL WAR ROUNDTABLE MEETING

Tuesday, April 16th at 6 PM

On Tuesday, April 16th, the Scottsdale Civil War Roundtable will host Eric Buckland. Buckland earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Kansas, and was subsequently commissioned a lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Army. He later served as a policy analyst in the White House, retiring in 2021. He has authored five books on Col. John Singleton Mosby, one of the most fascinating personalities of the Civil War. Mosby, known as the "Gray Ghost" of the Confederacy, commanded the 43rd Virginia Battalion, also known as Mosby's Rangers. Currently he serves as the newsletter editor of the Stuart-Mosby Historical Society. Buckland speaks frequently across the country on Mosby and his celebrated Civil War exploits. On April 16th Buckland will present "Mosby's Rangers: Facts, Myths and Legends." A former Special Forces officer himself, Buckland, who resides in Centerville, Virginia, is one of the leading experts on Mosby and his career.

Buckland's lecture will begin at 6PM in the Copper Auditorium located on the lower level of the Civic Center branch of the Scottsdale Public Library, 3839 N. Drinkwater Blvd., Scottsdale. Doors will open at 5:00 PM to meet the speaker, browse the book sale, and view Civil War videos. Parking is free at the adjacent covered parking garage.

The public is welcome to attend the monthly meeting of the Scottsdale Civil War Roundtable. To view our current speaker schedule through May, 2024, visit our website: www.scottsdalecwr.org.
