

BALDWIN CELEBRATION

100

CHANGING HANDS BOOKSTORE X ASU PROJECT HUMANITIES

AUGUST 15 + 20

 CHANGING HANDS BOOKSTORE
300 W CAMELBACK RD | PHX, 85013
6428 S McCLINTOCK DR | TEMPE, 85283

DISCUSSION
FACILITATOR:
DR. NEAL LESTER,
ASU PROJECT
HUMANITIES

CELEBRATE 100 YEARS OF JAMES BALDWIN! Writer and activist James Baldwin explored the complexities of race, identity, love, and class with searing insight. Join Changing Hands Bookstore, Dr. Neal Lester, and ASU Project Humanities for two free community events as we commemorate 100 years of Baldwin, one of the most important figures of the 20th century.

6PM THURS, AUG 15
CHANGING HANDS PHX

FREE FILM SCREENING – An Oscar nominee for Best Documentary, I Am Not Your Negro envisions the book James Baldwin never finished. The result is a provocative examination of race in America, using Baldwin's original words, and with a flood of rich archival material. The film will be introduced by Project Humanities director Dr. Neal Lester, with a discussion to follow the screening.

I AM NOT YOUR NEGRO BALDWIN
100

7PM TUES, AUG 20
CHNGING HANDS TEMPE

FREE COMMUNITY EVENT – How does James Baldwin's work impact you? What are your favorite pieces of his? Attendees are encouraged to bring a line, a poem, a passage, a personal story, or something else that connects you with Baldwin for a two- to three-minute share. Discussion facilitated by Dr. Neal Lester.

AN EVENING OF BALDWIN

COMMUNITY SHARING EVENT
WITH DR. NEAL LESTER + ASU PROJECT HUMANITIES

CELEBRATING THE BALDWIN 100

bit.ly/baldwinfilm | bit.ly/baldwinevening